

Maybe somewhere along the line you lost your passion for the Lord. Well, you can have it back, and God wants you to have it back! God wants to revive you and me. No matter where you are or what you've done, no matter what you feel or think you need, there is only one place to find it and very much like the song we sing, "Revive us Again," we must back track our steps to find where we may have left Him.

Scriptures Used In Todays Sermon

Revival! What does that mean? Over the past several years revival has been demonstrated as a awakening to God, to be recharged and devoted. Its almost as if God comes down to us through a designed week at church full of excitement. But when we look at revival a little closer in the bible it speaks of US returning and returning to His word, to returning to Him through prayer to quit looking at everything else that really doesn't matter and concentrate more of our efforts on Him. Are we doing that today? Have we neglected the word? How then will I receive revival? Have I neglected my prayer life and have I put more focus on what David says in the Psalms on "worthless" Things. It is so easy to do, we have all struggled with this in life or are struggling with this right now, so you and I are not alone. But what I will do is focus my revival for everyday. Not just a particular week at church, a dedicated month or year but everyday of my life. Lets all commit to out revival with Him today!

In Case You Missed It

Hosea 6:1-2, esv).

When we hear the word “revival,” many of us picture maybe a tent meeting or those getting overly excited in a worship. But that’s not quite what Hosea is saying here. Looking at the meaning of “revival” The Bible teaches that God wants to revive our relationship with Him. He wants to wake us up, to refresh our faith, to fire us up again. Revival is renewed interest after a period of indifference or decline. So if you feel like your faith has veered off course, then you must know that the first wrong turn most people take is always away from God. If you wake up one morning and find yourself in a spiritual desert, then you must trace your steps back to where you left God’s path. Not a request for God to come and get you. You have to return to the Lord. All pain that won’t go away is rooted in a failure of faith, and all pleasure flows are found from a joy that’s found only in God. Here’s what revival isn’t. It’s not the over excited circus that we hear about on TV. Revival is not emotional explosion in which people are swept up in the moment, fall to the ground, and act bizarrely, and out of control. That’s not revival. The Bible does not invite us to seek a revival, ask God for a revival, or pray that revival will come. In fact, the Bible does not even use the specific word “revival,” thought it frequently mentions people being revived. Throughout history, there have been a lot of God’s blessing that people called “revival,” Here’s what revival is. “I am afflicted very much; Revive me, O Lord, according to Your word” (Psalm 119:107). Revival involves an increased hunger for and delight in God’s Word after a difficult season of life. Psalm 119:37 instructs, “Turn away my eyes from looking at worthless things, And revive me in Your way”. Revival involves a disdain for sin and a renewed desire for obedience to God. Psalm 80:18 prompts, “Revive us, and we will call upon Your name.” Revival brings increased commitment to and interest in personal prayer. Revival is returning to God’s path, setting our sights on the goal again, and pursuing with new passion the One who can make our lives more that we’d every dreamed. Revival is gladly experiencing and enjoying God at the center of our lives. Revival is seeing God at work. Maybe you can remember a time when you were fired up about the Lord, but somehow you drifted away. Maybe you’ve become the passive observer at church, showing up but missing the purpose.
