
Scriptures Used In Today's Sermon

Luke 6:46-49

46 "Why do you call Me, 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I say?"

47 Everyone who comes to Me and hears My words and acts on them, I will show you whom he is like:

48 he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock; and when a flood occurred, the torrent burst against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built.

49 But the one who has heard and has not acted accordingly, is like a man who built a house on the ground without any foundation; and the torrent burst against it and immediately it collapsed, and the ruin of that house was great.

1 John 1:6

6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth;

WELCOME

We would like to take this time to welcome and thank each of you for being here. We would love the chance of meeting you after services a brief moment if you are visiting us today. If you have a question of us or would like to visit with us on a particular issue we would love to sit down with you anytime. Again Welcome!

Looking for a church home? We would love for you to consider joining us as we strive to do the Lord's will together. Want to know more about your relationship with Him with a personal or group bible study? Have a need or know of someone who does. Please take the time to visit with us we would love to know how we may serve you.

Remember you can download our free church app and stay connected. Find us in the app store at ucoclawton.

Today we will examine one of Christ's great teachings about our own foundation found in the 2 builders over in Luke the 6th chapter. No matter how many times you have heard or read this have you ever applied the principle to yourself as opposed to just someone else? This speaks to all of us in a very personal way. And why in the end not in the beginning or somewhere in the process its important for each of us to know what our foundation is based upon. Follow along in this passage for your consideration. Scriptures used in today's sermon can be found on the back.

In Case You Missed It

Romans 8:37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

2 Corinthians 2:14 But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and manifests through us the sweet aroma of the knowledge of Him in every place.

There is an old Indian fable which tells of a mouse who was in constant distress because of its fear of cats. So a magician took pity on it and turned it into a cat so it would have no more fear. Now, as a cat, it was in fear of dogs. So the magician turned it into a dog. Now, as a dog, it was stressed out in fear of tigers. Then the magician turned the dog into a tiger. Now, as a tiger, it was shaking in fear of hunters. The magician finally said to the tiger, “Be a mouse again. You only have the heart of a mouse, and I cannot help you.”

There is a lesson here - - if we never deal with the root of our issues, and ultimately the issue of fear . . . we’ll fail to walk victoriously in all that we do. If we fail to achieve victory, it is not because of a lack of resources or strength...but rather a failure to confront our fears. Ultimately, the fear to overcome is the fear of death!

As Hebrews describes through Jesus death, “He might destroy the one who has power of death, that is the devil, and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to a lifetime of slavery.” [Hebrews 2:14-15] In Revelation, the description given to those who were victorious . . . “conquered by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives unto the death.” [Revelation 12:11]

So the key is overcoming the fear of death, and once you have conquered the fear of death . . . then it becomes an easy task to live for Him. This is one of the keys to walking victoriously. For the promise is given to us . . . for we are more than conquerors and we can walk in triumph over any circumstance revealing Him in the process.

So, never allow your problems to define your heart, attitude or crush your spirit. Whether you are a mouse, a tiger, or a man, through Christ your victory is assured being in Him.
