

If a man is too busy to meet to
 Worship God twice on Sunday
 And once on Wednesday night,
 He has more business than God
 Intended for him to have.

We would like to take this time and welcome any visitors we have with us today. We are so glad you came. Let us get the chance to introduce ourselves to you and give you a warm welcome. From the University family we say "Welcome".

Today I would like to talk about trades and their values.....We will examine a little more of great trades in the bible. When I think of trades I often think of sports and I am truly amazed what teams are willing to "trade" for because of that players value. With God what are we willing to trade? if anything? Are we a people of traders and not the Benedict Arnold kind. You see Abraham gave up his home to become a father of a nation. Moses and David traded their sheep to become leaders of Israel. The disciples traded their nets to follow Jesus. What are we willing to trade? Our very own soul? What will we trade for it, will we be self serving or following what Christ and His church has intended. Lets study today with a very soul searching question. What is it in my life I am willing to "trade". Because unlike the sports trade our value is so much greater than how many zero's there can be attached at the end of it. Heaven is my reward and it can be yours too. Lets make the trade of a lifetime and "choose to follow Him".

Eric
