

Scriptures Used In Today's Sermon

Isaiah 53:6

6 All of us like sheep have gone astray, Each of us has turned to his own way;

Psalms 90:9-12

9 For all our days have declined in Your fury; We have finished our years like a sigh.
10 As for the days of our life, they contain seventy years, Or if due to strength, eighty years, Yet their pride is but labor and sorrow; For soon it is gone and we fly away.
11 Who understands the power of Your anger And Your fury, according to the fear that is due You?
12 So teach us to number our days, That we may present to You a heart of wisdom.

Hebrews 2:1

1 For this reason we must pay much close attention to what we have heard so that we don't drift away.

Philippians 3:7-11

7 But whatever things were gain to me, those things I have counted as loss for the sake of Christ.
8 More than that, I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but rubbish so that I may gain Christ,
9 and may be found in Him, not having a righteousness of my own derived from the Law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which comes from God on the basis of faith,
10 that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death;
11 in order that I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

James 1:19, 21

19 This you know, my beloved brethren. But everyone must be quick to hear, slow to speak and slow to anger;
21 in humility receive the word implanted, which is able to save your souls.

Ecclesiastes 12:13-14

13 The conclusion, when all has been heard, is: fear God and keep His commandments, because this applies to every person.
14 For God will bring every act to judgment, everything which is hidden, whether it is good or evil.

We want to thank each and everyone of you for being here to worship the Lord, We hope you have felt welcomed and a part of today's worship. If you are visiting we welcome you and would ask if you would remain after services a brief moment so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. Welcome to University a place where Christians meet.

If you are interested in setting up a group or personal bible study, looking for a church home, have a question of us, need or know of a need of assistance please take the time to visit with us we would love to know how we may serve you better.

Please continue to use our postcard mail outs to friends, neighbors or loved ones (they are out in the foyer). You can address and mail them out yourself or address them and leave them with the office so we can mail them out for you. Plus have you invited someone this week to be a part of our worship. Please think about who you may invite this week.

Ever hear someone say "Just roll with the it" "Take life as it comes" for many that way of life can be carefree living a life without a care in the world it seems. The question is should we live our lives like that and towards God or as Christians should we have a different approach? Being truthful with myself for many years I just floated along through life taking things as they came. But now I have a new focus with a new life in Him. Will you be found in Him? Because in the end will you or I be found in Him? Lets examine where our hearts are today and see if we are truly putting God first and see if He is a priority in my life.
