

Scriptures Used In Today's Sermon

Galatians 5:1-4

- 1 It was for freedom that Christ set us free; therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery.
- 2 Behold I, Paul, say to you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will be of no benefit to you.
- 3 And I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is under obligation to keep the whole Law.
- 4 You have been severed from Christ, you who are seeking to be justified by law; you have fallen from grace.

Galatians 6:13-14

- 13 For those who are circumcised do not even keep the Law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised so that they may boast in your flesh.
- 14 But may it never be that I would boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

WELCOME!

We are so glad you have come our way and would invite you back the next time you are able. If you are visiting us today we would ask if you would remain after services so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. Again welcome and thank you for choosing to be here today and know this that each and everyone of you plays a vital role in His kingdom. I can't tell you enough how glad I am that you are here.

Attention FACEBOOK users. I need your help if you would please go to our church Facebook page and first "like us" then please share the "Free Garage Sale" banner we have there so it will go on your timeline. This is a great way to get the word out to so many more people we can reach. If you have any questions just see me please. Plus remember to sign up in ways you may help or donate items. This can be such a great tool and outreach program. Please be praying for this upcoming event.

If you have a question of us, looking for a church home, want to set up a group or personal bible study, have a need or know of someone who does or would just like to know more about your relationship with Jesus Christ please take the time to visit with us we would love to see how we may serve you.

When you came in to services today have you ever asked yourself the question. Why am I here? Not the why am I here on earth? But why did I come to services today. Was it out of duty? Was it a have to? A check off the box list? Do you or I continue to come based on what I have done or will do or is it more out of what He has done and what He will do. Lets examine where our hearts are today in this matter of the heart taking a look from the book of Galatians. Remember scriptures used in today's sermon is found on the back of this bulletin.

In Case You Missed It

Luke 8:15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

A story is told about a official of a mission board, who knew it takes more than just desire to make a missionary, so this man was appointed to examine a candidate for the mission field. He told the young man to be at his house at six o'clock in the morning. The young man complied and arrived at six o'clock sharp. The examiner kept him sitting alone in the room until ten. Then he finally came in and said abruptly, "Young man, can you write your name? A little taken aback by the question, the man paused. Before he could get a word out, the examiner blurted, "What, you don't know what it is?" The mission board official put him through a series of questions of that nature and then went to report to the mission board. "Okay," he said, "he will do." I tried his patience for hours and hours and he did not break down; Then I insulted him and he did not lose his temper. This candidate answered with patience, and gentleness. His faith was vindicated by the very quality of his character. He will make a good missionary. "Whether we realize it or not — we all are in the mission field. Our patience is bound to be tested in ways we've never imagined and we'll most likely find it unfair and unkind at times. But standing strong in the Lord in the face of offensive treatment and enduring seasons of long-suffering is a testimony in and of itself — and that will be the difference others will see. Are you weary from the walk? It can happen but we endure and show we have kept the word it will bring forth fruit with patience.
