

Scriptures Used In Todays Sermon

Luke 12:4-5

- 4 “I say to you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that have no more that they can do.
- 5 But I will warn you whom to fear: fear the One who, after He has killed, has authority to cast into hell; yes, I tell you, fear Him!

2 Timothy 2:15

- 15 Be diligent to present yourself approved to God as a workman who does not need to be ashamed, accurately handling the word of truth

Hebrews 4:11

- 11 Therefore let us be diligent to enter that rest, so that no one will fall, through following the same example of disobedience.

Hebrews 2:1-3

- 1 We must pay the most careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away.
- 2 For since the message spoken through angels was binding, and every violation and disobedience received its just punishment,
- 3 How shall we escape if we ignore so great a salvation?

2 Peter 2:4-10

- 4 For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to pits of darkness, reserved for judgment;
- 5 And did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a preacher of righteousness, with seven others, when He brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly;
- 6 And if He condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to destruction by reducing them to ashes, having made them an example to those who would live ungodly lives thereafter;
- 7 And if He rescued righteous Lot, oppressed by the sensual conduct of unprincipled men
- 8 (for by what he saw and heard that righteous man, while living among them, felt his righteous soul tormented day after day by their lawless deeds),
- 9 then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment,
- 10 And especially those who indulge the flesh in its corrupt desires and despise authority.

WELCOME! We are so glad you have made the decision to worship with us today. If you have come by way of invitation through our mail out, website, social media or by someone that invited you here we are so glad you have come today so let us have the opportunity of meeting you in person by asking if you would remain briefly after services so we can shake your hand and welcome you here in person. Also please consider to stay for our monthly luncheon that will be directly following services over at our office building. Thank you!

If you are looking for a church home, or interested to know more about Christ and discipleship, want to set up a group or personal bible study, need of assistance or know of someone who does please meet with us we would love to know how we may serve you.

Reminder: Our FREE Garage sale is coming up on April 9th. Help us spread the word, drop off any items you might want to donate, sign up to help us as we extend the invitation to others as we meet the community. Pray for this effort so we may reach out to those around us.

As Paul wrote to Timothy he said “to be diligent to present ourselves approved to God as a “WORKMAN” not ashamed of the gospel accurately handling the word of truth”. A workman who is diligent with the word of God is going to be a “Doer” for sure so as we study today we will find those who did and those who didn’t all throughout history. But in the end where will the Lord find me is the better question? In this day and age where I hear that Christ did it all therefore there is nothing I need to do. Is that the correct expectations? What all does that mean or should it mean and will I be as Paul said “presentable” to Him in the end, just think of what that word means when we want to be presentable now? How do we do that with other things in my life and what do I need to do to be presentable if I am not? Lets examine and consider where we are with His word today and how will He find you and I?

In Case You Missed It

Mark 14:3
While He was in Bethany at the home of Simon the leper, and reclining at the table, there came a woman with an alabaster vial of very costly perfume of pure nard; and she broke the vial and poured it over His head.

This is a touching story of how Jesus was anointed before His crucifixion carries a beautiful illustration when reading this story have you ever wondered why the alabaster box needed to be broken when she could have simply opened it and poured out the nard; remember as even the disciples pointed out this was extremely expensive and precious perfume which might have been her dowry what she saved up for in marriage. I heard one commentator say that she refused to use that box for any other purpose after anointing Him. But whatever the motive in her heart, Her example speaks of the total devotion and commitment her soul had for Him she illustrated giving the best of everything she had; and it speaks of brokenness followed by anointing and its beautiful fragrance. So this can encourage every devoted follower of offering ourselves like that when broken notice to the fragrance of perfume following the breaking "fills the room". Broken people "smell" different. Their humility and love are very noticeable. Being broken before the Lord affects everyone around...as the Apostle Paul said,...we are a fragrance of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing," [2 Corinthians 2:15]. And Paul said he was a broken man. Chief sinner in fact we too should never be ashamed to be broken, even if we are criticized by those around us, as she was. The Lord's commendation of her has traveled around the world for 2,000 years and inspired millions of believers in circumstances which break them. God will not deny a broken heart and a contrite spirit. When we offer ourselves and our most precious things, whatever it is it will pour out of us like the ointment from that broken alabaster box — and His pleasure in us should and will "fill the room". Know that when you offer your best to the Lord your hard beautiful stone box will be broken, and after that, the fragrance of your life will be beautiful wherever you go.
