

Scriptures Used In Today's Sermon

1 Corinthians 11:28

28 But a man must examine himself, and in so doing he is to eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

2 Corinthians 13:5

5 Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves! Or do you not recognize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you unless indeed you fail the test?

2 Corinthians 10:12

12 For we are not bold to class or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves; but when they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they are without understanding.

James 4:8

8 Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

James 1:21-25

21 Therefore, putting aside all filthiness and all that remains of wickedness, in humility receive the word implanted, which is able to save your souls.

22 But prove yourselves doers of the word, and not merely hearers who delude themselves.

23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror,

24 For once he has looked at himself and gone away, he has immediately forgotten what kind of person he was.

25 But one who looks intently at the perfect law, the law of liberty, and abides by it, not having become a forgetful hearer but an effectual doer, this man will be blessed in what he does.

WELCOME

We want to take this time to thank and welcome each one of you today as we come here to worship the Lord. If you are visiting we are glad you have come our way and invite you back the next time you are able. We would also ask if you would remain after services a brief moment so we might get the opportunity of welcoming you here in person. Also this is our monthly fellowship luncheon we ask for you to be our special guest this will take place directly following after services at our SLC and office building.

If you are looking for a church home we would love to have you. If you want to set up a personal or group bible study have a need or know of someone who does please take the time to visit with us we would love to know how we may serve you. Remember our fellowship luncheon today following services.

Remember to sign up for our workshop April 6-8th. We need you to RSVP for planning purposes. Please continue to pray for this as we get closer.

Download our free bible app and stay connected ucoclawton.

I know this fits me but some of us may feel uncomfortable when it comes to a job evaluation. Even though we may know it is useful and may benefit. Deep down we may not like change. We may resist constructive criticisms. We may not like to see an area in which we may lack. But measuring success is important with all aspects of life. So why is it we don't like to evaluate our Spiritual Walk. The bible instructs us to but does not give a verse by verse plan. Today lets all consider and examine our progress with growing in Him more. Reminder that scriptures used in today's sermon can be found on the back.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

This is an interesting passage of Scripture found in 2 Kings chapter 23 which details how Josiah, a young and Godly king, went forth to cleanse the land, and in doing so, finds that he was fulfilling a prophecy given years before. Josiah went forth doing what was right — and in doing so, was walking out the works that God preordained for him - he was fulfilling the calling that God had set into motion years before! Each of us is alive for such a time as this, living in this day and hour. So what is our mandate, our destiny for these days? Will we walk as Josiah, steadfast after God? Because in our day as well, there is prophecy spoken by Jesus himself concerning these last days in which we live: “because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.” [Matthew 24:12] Josiah walked amidst incredible idolatry and sin in Israel, kind of like we are now, but instead of catering or yielding to it, he used all the authority he had to tear it down. He was fearless in his hatred of sin because of his intense love for God. Jesus’ words imply a specific calling for us in our last days: Don’t allow your love to grow cold! Sin is all around us, and maybe to some extent, IN us but it’s already written that we can triumph over it if we will just keep our love for him HOT! On the cross he won an astounding victory which we can claim and walk in each and every day of our lives! If we walk in his victory, we too can fulfill the prophetic words of the greatest prophet, because he did not say “the love of ALL will grow cold.” So let us be those who fulfill this destiny the way King Josiah did. We CAN be the ones who keep that passion for God even in these times.
