

Psalms 139:19-24

- 19 O that You would slay the wicked, O God; Depart from me, therefore, men of bloodshed.
- 20 For they speak against You wickedly, and Your enemies take Your name in vain.
- 21 Do I not hate those who hate You, O Lord? And do I not loathe those who rise up against You?
- 22 I hate them with the utmost hatred; They have become my enemies.
- 23 Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my anxious thoughts!
- 24 And see if there be any hurtful way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way.

Jonah 4:1-4

- 1 But it greatly displeased Jonah and he became angry.
- 2 He prayed to the Lord and said, "Please Lord, was not this what I said while I was still in my own country? Therefore in order to forestall this I fled to Tarshish, for I knew that You are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and abundant in loving kindness, and one who relents concerning calamity.
- 3 Therefore now, O Lord, please take my life from me, for death is better to me than life."
- 4 The Lord said, "Do you have good reason to be angry?"

Deuteronomy 9:14

- 14 Let Me alone, that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.

There is nothing worse than thinking about a enemy, someone that has treated you badly. But what if its the worst of the worst. A whole city full of it. Wouldn't we want justice. Wouldn't we want God to pronounce judgment and just reach down and destroy it. I think its only natural. But where is Gods heart. Today we will look to see Gods grace and longsuffering even when we don't want to. Even when we feel more justified. Reminder that the scriptures used in todays sermon can be found on the back.
