

Scriptures Used In Today's Sermon

1 Corinthians 15:3-19

3 For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures,
 4 and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures,
 5 and that He appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve.
 6 After that He appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time, most of whom remain until now, but some have fallen asleep;
 7 then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles;
 8 and last of all, as to one untimely born, He appeared to me also.
 9 For I am the least of the apostles, and not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.
 10 But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me did not prove vain; but I labored even more than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God with me.
 11 Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.
 12 Now if Christ is preached, that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?
 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, not even Christ has been raised;
 14 and if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is vain, your faith also is vain.
 15 Moreover we are even found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified against God that He raised Christ, whom He did not raise, if in fact the dead are not raised.
 16 For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised;
 17 and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is worthless; you are still in your sins.
 18 Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.
 19 If we have hoped in Christ in this life only, we are of all men most to be pitied.

John 20:29-31

29 Jesus *said to him, "Because you have seen Me, have you believed? Blessed are they who did not see, and yet believed."
 30 Therefore many other signs Jesus also performed in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book;
 31 but these have been written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing you may have life in His name.

1 Corinthians 15:58

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord.

2 Timothy 4:8

8 in the future there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day; and not only to me, but also to all who have loved His appearing.

We are glad you have joined us today this Easter Sunday. Whether its your first time, first time in a long time or are a regular member we are so glad you have decided to worship with us this Lord's Day to remember the great sacrifice given to us by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. If you are visiting we would like to ask if you would remain after services so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. Again Thank You! You are special to us.

If you are looking for a church home, want to set up a group or personal bible study, need some assistance or know of someone who does make some time to meet with us we would love to know how we may serve you.

Remember our outreach Free Garage Sale coming up April 9th. Help spread the word!

What sermon does one preach on a day like today. As I sat down to write something down my mind was flooded and started to go in all directions. How could I convey all what I want to say in such a short amount of time without being like the apostle Paul who on one occasion preached till midnight. Don't worry I won't come close to that so you can stop worrying. But you get the idea of all of what we could go over for our sake. How can anyone tell all what Jesus Christ did in just a few days using just a few words. Today we will summarize all of what Paul told the Corinthians in chapter 15. And come to the realization either its true or not. Its either the greatest lie and hoax of all time or it is the single most important event throughout all of history. Lets go back to that day and see what the cross means to each of us today.
