WELCOME

We would like to welcome each of you here to worship with us at University. We are so glad you have come our way and extend an invitation for you to come again when you are able. If you are visiting us today we would love the opportunity to meet with you so if you would please remain after services a brief moment so we might get the chance of welcoming you here in person. Again Welcome!

Looking for a church home? Would like to set up a group or personal bible study? Have a need or know of someone who does? Please take the time to meet with us we would love to know how we may serve you.

Download our free church app and stay connected. Plus you have an online bible at the click of a button. Search ucoclawton in the app store.

Reminder this is 5th Sunday preacher exchange. This time with a short twist. I will be going to 8th and Lee for services and I ask you all to join me. We will be closing our services for tonight only and combining our evening worship with them as they are still searching for a new pulpit minister. It's a great way for us all to join together. Thanks for the support.

Today's lesson is inspired by one of the songs we sing. "Years I spent in Vanity." For this songwriter it was a revelation that years went on without him realizing what was really going on spiritually. Years went by and then all of a sudden it came to him and even made him tremble. What could it have been? Can we be guilty of doing the same thing? We all know what God does for us but does He see what we are willing to show Him with our love? Let's each examine our hearts today. Remember scriptures used in today's sermon can be found on the back.
