

Key Verse:

John 10:27

27 My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me;

Hebrews 1:1-2

- 1 God, after He spoke long ago to the fathers in the prophets in many portions and in many ways,
- 2 in these last days has spoke unto us in His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the world.

Numbers 12:1-10

- 1 Then Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married (for he had married a Cushite woman);
- 2 and they said, "Has the Lord indeed spoken only through Moses? Has He not spoken through us as well?" And the Lord heard it.
- 3 (Now the man Moses was very humble, more than any man who was on the face of the earth.)
- 4 Suddenly the Lord said to Moses and Aaron and to Miriam, "You three come out to the tent of meeting." So the three of them came out.
- 5 Then the Lord came down in a pillar of cloud and stood at the doorway of the tent, and He called Aaron and Miriam. When they had both come forward,
- 6 He said, "Hear now My words: If there is a prophet among you, I, the Lord, shall make Myself known to him in a vision. I shall speak with him in a dream.
- 7 "Not so, with My servant Moses, He is faithful in all My household;
- 8 With him I speak mouth to mouth, Even openly, and not in dark sayings, and he beholds the form of the Lord. Why then were you not afraid to speak against My servant, against Moses?"
- 9 So the anger of the Lord burned against them and He departed.
- 10 But when the cloud had withdrawn from over the tent, behold, Miriam was leprous, as white as snow.

We would like to take this time to thank each of you for being here to worship the Lord today. If you are visiting we would invite you back and would ask if you would remain after services a brief moment so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. Welcome.

Looking for a church home? Want to set up a group or personal bible study? Need some assistance or know of a need? Please take the time to meet with us as we would love to know how we may serve you.

Download our free app to your phone get connected to our webpage, Facebook, hear weekly lessons and have access to a digital bible all by the click of a button. Go to the app store and search ucoclawton-oklahoma to find and download today.

What kind of listener are you and I? Is it attentive or more selective? I think it all depends on who it is right? What about God, how well do we listen? I mean really listen. Are we trying to listen? These are questions I want all of us to truthfully ask ourselves. Because even with the ones close to us can be tuned out on occasions. My fear is we can do it so much we don't give it much attention. Lets examine our hearts today on this subject and a reminder that scriptures used in todays sermon can be found on the back.

In Case You Missed It

Once safely on shore, we found out that the island was called Malta. The islanders showed us unusual kindness. They built a fire and welcomed us all because it was raining and cold." Acts 28:1-2 (NIV)

In Acts 28:1-2, we encounter some unnamed natives who dwelt on a remote island where a boatload of people — including the apostle Paul — suddenly found themselves shipwrecked in the middle of a storm. "Once safely on shore, we found out that the island was called Malta. The islanders showed us unusual kindness." Unusual kindness. Their welcoming behavior toward the group of strangers was so uncommon that Scripture doesn't just chronicle this encounter with the single word "kindness." Instead, the adjective "unusual" was intentionally used to give us a glimpse of the godly - culture behavior of these folks. Did you see the reason given for this above-and-beyond behavior. It doesn't say this unusual kindness was shown, because "Paul and his companions were important people." It wasn't because "the people from the shipwreck had the exact political views as the islanders." No again. They were treated with this unusual kindness because...it was raining and cold." Today we encounter all sorts of people who are up against the elements, perhaps not physically with rain or cold, but in life somehow nonetheless. We happen upon these people, knowing nothing about their beliefs or backgrounds. And perhaps they're already in our everyday lives, right under our noses, but we have never stopped to help. So, what can our conduct look like for us today? And how do our acts of kindness become in the unusual category? Kindness holds the door open for an elderly person leaving the grocery store. Unusual kindness willingly carries their groceries all the way to their car, puts them in the trunk and sends them on their way with an "It was my pleasure," when thanked. Kindness is smiling at the maxed-out mom of two young kids pitching a royal fit in the department store toy aisle, rather than staring with stone-faced silence, judging her for her apparent lack of parenting skills. Unusual kindness recognizes all children misbehave, and this stressed-out mama is outnumbered. So we tell her to hang in there. Kindness whispers a prayer for the just-moved-in-from-six-states-away neighbor who's facing life (outside of work time) all alone. Unusual kindness invites him to your house for a weekend supper, folds him into your family's ordinary life and asks him questions to get to know him better. Scatter some unusual kindness today. When you do, you'll make someone's day — and yours!
