

DEATH OF MR. MIDWEEK SERVICE

We are sorry to announce the passing of Mr. Midweek Service. He died recently at the Neglected Church on Ho Hum Avenue. Born many years ago, he was strong and healthy as a child. Fed largely on zeal and Bible study, he grew into world-wide prominence, and was one of the most influential members of the church family. However, in recent years Mr. Midweek Service has been in failing health, wasting away until rendered helpless by stiffness of the knee, cooling of the heart, and lack of spiritual sensitivity. He was quoted as whispering some last words about the absence of His Loved Ones.

Experts, including Mr. Indifference, Dr. Apathy, and Dr. T.V. Primetime, disagree as to the cause of his final illness. They all administered massive doses of excuses, even ordering a last-minute motivational bypass, all to no avail. A post-mortem examination showed a deficiency of spiritual food, lack of prayer, and lack of Christian fellowship as contributing factors in his passing.

Also, we have been informed that his wife, Mrs. Sunday Evening Service, has just been admitted to the local hospital. Preliminary tests, by Dr. Unconcerned, reveal the same disease as suffered by her husband. At this point it appears to be terminal. Let's all be praying for her.

Welcome to University! We are so glad you have come our way and invite you back the next time you are able. If you are visiting with us we certainly are glad you are here and welcome you back and would invite you to remain after services a brief moment so we might get the chance of meeting you in person. Again Welcome! Know this that everyone plays a vital role in the work here!

There was an old song I used to hear while growing up that went like "Oh Lord its hard to be humble when your perfect in every way". Many of us laugh at that song but how true is it in your life and mine? Humility, Humbleness, where does it come from? How does it start, is it just a feeling I have or does it come down to what I do? My actions. The bible never tells us to BE humble instead the bible tells us to "humble ourselves" it comes down to meekness and meekness is not weakness. Meekness instead is power under control. It's a little harder to be humble when a lot of what we do and how we act is about ourselves. Jesus will show us the ultimate example that we will look at today concerning humility which is found in the upper room. Our text is found in John the 13th chapter.

In Case You Missed It

Psalms 20:7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.

I came across an article about "fake physicians". According to this article, many American citizens could be receiving medical treatment from doctors who lied on their medical school loan applications and used the money to pay for fake documents. One guy was arrested and later admitted that he was paid a lot of money to hand out approximately a hundred phony medical documents claiming that his clients completed their training! Can you imagine?! Not to scare anyone, but it wouldn't surprise me to find that this kind of thing is commonplace today — we live in a world full of corruption and deceit. But you know what really DOES surprise me? We would sooner trust in doctors we don't know and medicines we've never heard of than trust in the healing touch of the Lord! We've somehow, been conditioned to look for every possible physical solution to our health problems and finally, when those don't work, we throw up our hands and say "Oh well, there's nothing left to do but pray!" We need to go to God FIRST! Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you! Haven't we heard this somewhere before? Let's start putting our trust first in the Lord today with everything in our lives....It boils down to who do you trust?
