

If a man is too busy to meet to
 Worship God twice on Sunday
 And once on Wednesday night,
 He has more business than God
 Intended for him to have.

ARE YOU HAPPY?

Not long ago, a short article passed my desk entitled, "To Be Happy." It read, "Close your book of complaints and open the book of blessings. Believe that other men are quite as sincere and honest as you, and treat them with respect. Stop looking for friendship and start being friendly. Be content with such things as you have, and stop whining about the things you do not have."

Does this sound like good advice? It should. Every one of these suggestions is based on biblical principles. Observe:

"Be you thankful" (Colossians 3:15)

"Love...believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things" (1 Corinthians 13:7).

"A man that hath friends must show himself friendly" (Proverbs 18:24).

And finally, "Be content with such things as you have" (Hebrews 13:5).

True happiness is not an elusive quarry always perched just beyond our grasp. True happiness is readily available and easily found. It comes from living for God, in God's appointed way.

"If ye know these things, happy are you if you do them: (John 13:17).
