A LITTLE CAN OF OIL

I read recently about a man who carried a little can of oil with him wherever he went. If he passed through a door that squeaked, he poured a drop of oil on the hinges, and if a gate was hard to open, he oiled the latch. So he passed through life lubricating all the creaking places, making it a little more pleasant for those who followed after him.

There is no telling how many lives you and I could keep from rusting and squeaking and how many gates we could open to happiness, if only we would take a little oil of brotherly love and human kindness. Let us use it wherever we are for there are many lives rusting away in sin.

Welcome to University church of Christ! We are so glad you are here. I want you to know that everyone plays a vital role in support of this ministry and we thank each and everyone of you for being a part of it. We may not say it enough but we thank you for being a part of today's worship and being partners in spreading the good news to this community...If you are visiting us today we are certainly glad you have come our way and would like to invite you back the next time you are able. We would also ask if those visiting would remain after services briefly so we might get the chance to meet you in person. Welcome!

If at any time you have a question of us, want to learn more about being a follower of Jesus Christ, would like a further study into God's word, looking for a church home or have a special need please make that wish known and get with us we would love to meet up with you.

How well do you know yourself? How do you see yourself? How does God see you? Today we will be looking closer at how the Holy Spirit is used in our lives. Today I want each of us to take a look in the mirror. A good look into the spiritual mirror of God's word to find out these answers. There is one thing that mirrors will teach us and that is they don't lie. EVER! They tell everything there is good or bad and maybe that's why so many don't care to take a look or closer look. Let's examine our hearts today and let the mirror be honest with us.
