

James 2:14-18

- 14 What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works?" Can that faith save him?
- 15 If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food,
- 16 and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that?
- 17 So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.
- 18 But someone will say, "You have faith and I have works." Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works.

Hebrew 1:1-2

- 1 Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets;
- 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world.

Matthew 7:13-14

- 13 "Enter by the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is easy, that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many.
- 14 For the gate is narrow and the way is hard, that leads to life, and those who find it are few.

Romans 3:10-18

- 10 as it is written: "None is righteous, no, not one;
- 11 no one understands, no one seeks for God.
- 12 All have turned aside, together they have become worthless, no one does good, not even one."
- 13 "Their throat is an open grave, they use their tongues to deceive." "The venom of asps is under their lips."
- 14 "Their mouth is full of curses and bitterness."
- 15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood,
- 16 in their paths are ruin and misery,
- 17 and the way of peace they have not known."
- 18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes."

How much is lip service today? The same as it ever was. Meaning to or not we may say a lot of empty words. Do we really believe what we say? Today we will look at the fact of believing something also should include actions. Others should see it and not us just say it. Will our words be meaningful? Will they have content? Will we be accountable for those words in the end. Today lets examine where each of us are today and apply that to our daily lives. Remember scriptures used in today's sermon can be found on the back.

INFLUENCE

Drop A PEBBLE in the water,
And its ripples reach out far;
And the sunbeams dancing on them
May reflect them to a star.

Give A SMILE to someone passing,
Thereby make his morning glad;
It may greet you in the evening
When your own heart may be sad.

Do A DEED of simple kindness;
Though its end you may not see;
It may reach, like widening ripples,
Down a long eternity.

-Joseph Morris

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

James 1:12 Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him.

Ever hear the story of a man named Horatio Spafford? You may not know his name but you know his finished work. Horatio Gates Spafford was a 43-year-old Chicago Businessman who suffered financial disaster in the great Chicago fire of 1871. He and his wife, still grieving the death of their son who had died shortly before the fire, were in great need of a retreat, and getaway so they decided to take their remaining children to England for a vacation. Their friend Dwight L. Moody would be preaching in evangelistic campaigns there that fall, and so Spafford arranged to send his wife and four daughters ahead of him. He planned to follow in a few days. During the voyage on the Atlantic Ocean, however the ship was struck by an iron sailing vessel and sank within 12 minutes. Two hundred twenty-six lives were lost — including the Spafford's four daughters. When the survivors were brought to shore at Cardiff, Wales, Mrs. Spafford cabled her husband two words: "Saved alone." Spafford booked passage on the next ship. As they were crossing the Atlantic the captain pointed out the place where he thought the ship had gone down. That night, Spafford wrote the following. When peace like a river attendeth my way, When sorrows like sea billows roll, Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say It is well, it is well with my soul. Spafford lost his business and his children but found comfort in His savior Jesus Christ. Could we? Would we? The weight, anguish and sorrow sometimes we may feel utterly unbearable at times. Who can understand how Horatio and his wife bore up under their excruciating losses? Jesus can, because He himself bore far greater agony and sorrow, and because He rescued us from an eternity of it. If you truly know Him you also can sing, "It Is Well With My Soul."
