

If a man is too busy to meet to
 Worship God twice on Sunday
 And once on Wednesday night,
 He has more business than God
 Intended for him to have.

We Welcome you to our services today. If you are visiting for the first time, we are so glad you came and hope you feel welcome. If at any time you have a question or would like prayers or need someone to talk to I for one have a open door at the office. Our elders are here to assist you as well. We strive to do everything the Lord would have us do according to His word. Again Welcome and thank you for being here today!

The Bible what is it: is it LAW or LOVE letter....actually its more than a blueprint and its more that a love letter and that's what I would like to look at a little further. Today we will look into this subject and ask like many "where does grace come in." "What about obedience"? From Adam to now we are all saved by Grace. But the fact that God demanded obedience then and now has in no way lessened His love for them or us. They still sinned, We still sin and today we are to be just as obedience. That's why Paul in Philippians 2 and 12 says:

"Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling". Paul isn't telling them that salvation is merited, still he is telling them that God's law has to be obeyed. I am afraid there are many today that want to view the bible as either/or when it comes to Love and obedience, take out one and leave the other when it really is both. Lets study further into this subject for this morning.

WE NEED FOOTSOLDIERS

Since living in a military town I thought this would be good to pass along. One of our members came across this and sent it to us. This comes from the Graphic Evangelist by Don McWhorter:

An army general, making a speech recently to a group of military leaders, said, "All the technology in the world will never eliminate the need for the foot soldier."

Soon after reading the above quotation, we attended a number of meetings where church leaders gather-planning sessions, leadership seminars, elders meetings, workshops, and the rest. We heard practically every plan imaginable proposed that would convert the world without our having to get out and do it personally. It is amazing what the human brain can come up with if it will eliminate personal involvement. We want our "programs" to convert the world. We advertise, and bring in "experts" to enthruse us. We appoint committees and delegate authority, anything to keep from having to get out and eyeball a sinner and tell them that he is a sinner and that only Jesus can save him.

It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe I Cor 1:21 and he made preachers out of every one of us. We are all under the greatest of all commissions. This was the choice of God, that they can't believe in whom they have not heard, and they can't hear without a preacher (Rom 10:14) The power is still in the foot soldier. The Lord's army is not a machine, directed by armchair generals from an elder's room; it is a world-covering horde of saved-by-grace people who appreciate it. All the mass media, however helpful, cannot substitute for one saint communicating the one gospel to one sinner. That's the way the world will be saved. God did not give His commission to angels, or even to a committee, but to men-to individuals. We do not need enthusiasm in the pulpit like we need commitment in the pew. We are part of our own problem when we should provide the solution-foot soldiers.
