

Scriptures Used In Todays Sermon

Proverbs 31:10, 28

10 Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies.
28 Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

John 1:10-12

10 He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him.
11 He came to His own, and those who were His own did not receive Him.
12 But as many as received him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name.

Romans 5:8

8 But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Romans 12:1-2

1 Therefore I urge you, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service of worship.
2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect.

Matthew 25:37

37 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were unwilling.

WELCOME

Happy Mother's Day!

We want to thank each of you for being here this Lord's day as we also take some time to honor our mothers past, present and future. You have a very important role in each of our lives personally and we want to thank each one of you for your lasting dedication and sacrifice. Thank YOU!

Welcome to services here at University if you are visiting we are so glad you are here and welcome you back the next time you are able. If you are a visitor today please take a moment or two to let us visit with you and introduce ourselves to you briefly after services. If at anytime you have a question of us, looking for a church home, want to know more about your relationship with Jesus Christ, interested in a group or personal bible study or you just want someone to talk to please make your request known to us in some way we would love to see how we may serve you.

A lot of pressure is put on us preachers on a day like today being that it is also Mother's Day. I kind of dread it in a way not because I don't like mother's or my mother but its because of the question I have with what do I say? What could I say? Today we will compare a little boys reflection on his own mothers sacrifice and compare it to another mother and Son we know well and love so much and what sacrifice they gave for us today. But again I do want to recognize and thank each mother that is in attendance today and thank each of you for your hard work and example. One this is for sure you never get tired of talking about MOM. We love you!

In Case You Missed It

13 Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again; 14 but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him shall never thirst; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life."

With all of our recent rains, water is the furthest from our minds isn't it until what? We don't have a abundance like a 4 year drought. I saw someone post on social media rain rain go away and I said I am not to that thinking yet because I remember our past summers and I also know since our summers are so hot we appreciate a good glass of water on a hot summer day nothing seems to quench our thirst better. On one hand our body tells us we are in need of water and in other times it comes delayed and can put us in danger. I know working with football players in the summer work out the head trainer advices players to make sure and drink 20 minutes before coming out to practice drink water all during practice and of course after for recovery because when the climate is very dry it fools you into thinking it's not as hot as it really is. You might not even feel thirsty, and before you know it, you can collapse from dehydration. I have seen a kid go through that its very scary and you feel helpless. Experts say that although thirst would seem to be a main indicator of dehydration, it is actually not. By the time one feels thirsty, he or she may very well already be dehydrated! Could the same be true with us spiritually? How many of us are walking around spiritually dehydrated and we don't even realize it? Satan, the enemy of our souls, would love nothing more than to keep us very busy and unaware of our dire need for the living water of the Word, prayer, worship and Godly fellowship. But we need to be smarter and take time to drink enough of these important spiritual benefits just like you are doing today by coming and hearing some of the word and sing a song of praise and offer up prayers. Its like taking a cold drink of water to sustain us and as Jesus points out that He is living water. How much will we go to Him?
