A very warm welcome to all our Mother's today on your very special day! We are so glad you are here and wish you the very best today as we try to express our appreciation and love for all you do and what you represent in our lives. The cards, flowers, and poems really can't express what all you truly mean to each of us in our lives. Thank You!.

If you are visiting with us today we are very glad you came and would ask if you could remain after services so we might get the chance of greeting and meeting you in person. Again Welcome!

Today we take time to honor our mothers past and present and take a look at what they mean to us. There are many stories and examples we find in the bible about mothers from Eve to Mary the mother of Jesus, to the virtuous woman in Proverbs, to the mother of James and John to even today's UN-NAMED mother illustration we find in Matthew chapter 15 who was simply called by Jesus a woman of great faith! Let's look at her example for each of us to have the love and persistence this special woman possessed.
