

Scriptures Used In Today's Sermon

Genesis 7:11-12

- 11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep burst forth, and the windows of the heavens were opened.
- 12 And rain fell upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

John 7:37-38

- 37 On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink.
- 38 Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'

John 7:39

- 39 Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

John 4:10-14

- 10 Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.
- 11 "Sir," the woman said, "you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water?"
- 12 Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his livestock?"
- 13 Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again,
- 14 But whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

1 Corinthians 10:1-4

- 1 For I do not want you to be ignorant of the fact, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud and that they all passed through the sea.
- 2 They were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea.
- 3 They all ate the same spiritual food
- 4 and drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank from the spiritual rock that accompanied them, and that rock was Christ.

Revelation 21:6

- 6 And he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give from the spring of the water of life without payment.

Revelation 22:1-2

- 1 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb
- 2 through the middle of the street of the city; also, on either side of the river, the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations...

Happy Mother's Day! We want to take this time to welcome each of you to services here today to worship our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. If you are visiting we are so glad you are here and would invite you back the next time you are able. If you are a visitor we would ask if you would remain after services a brief moment so we might get the chance of meeting and welcoming you here in person. Again Welcome!

If you are looking for a church home, in need of some assistance, want to set up a personal or group bible study please take the time to meet with us we would love to know how we may serve you. Also don't forget to download our free church app and stay connected plus get a free bible app included.

Today we honor our Mothers for all who they are and what they have done. You truly are very special part of our lives!

We all know the importance of water don't we? We literally can't live without it. But yet spiritually speaking even after the Lord's invitation we tend to believe we can even to the point of after we die. What about the "Living Water" that Jesus Himself invited us to freely come to and still today invites anyone who is thirsty to come to Him. Will we? Have we lost the desire. Sadly it is a offer that was rejected not only 2,000 years ago when He extended His first offer but even today many are filled with something else it seems for the most part by how we live our lives without it. Just as we need water physically it is up to us to see we need Him to sustain us forever. Reminder that scriptures used in today's sermon can be found on the back.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Philippians 4:8 Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy-- meditate on these things.

In the 1970’s when the Alaskan Pipeline was being constructed many Texans went to Alaska to work on the pipeline alongside the Eskimos, native Alaskans. However, Texans could only work a few hours in the frigid weather, while the Eskimos could easily work for hours on end. Some scientists decided to do a study to find out why the Eskimos could withstand the weather, while the Texans struggled. The study concluded there were no physical differences between the Eskimos and the Texans. Then the scientists conducted a psychological study and discovered the difference. The Eskimos experienced the cold, but clearly understood that a job needed to be done. With that mindset, they focused intently on obtaining results rather than how the weather was affecting them. The Texans, on the other hand, were so focused on the cold weather it became their overriding experience of the situation, monopolizing their attention and energy and crippling their capacity to work. When the Apostle Paul penned these words in Philippians 4:8, exhorting us to meditate on those things which are good etc. - - he was in prison. Yet he clearly had been training himself not to focus on his external circumstances but on everything good, noble, and praiseworthy, and especially the Lord Himself! Paul was no stranger to discomfort or the temptation it brings. But he’d learned well that his inward attitude toward difficult external circumstances could dramatically affect the way he experienced them and also his capacity to function in spite of them. Focus on how bad things are — the trials, temptations, the circumstances that surround you — and you will be crippled by the amount of attention you give to them. Focus on the Lord, His Word, His promises, His deliverance, and everything good He has done, and will do, and you will work like an Eskimo in the frigid air.
