

John 6:44-45

- 44 No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up on the last day.
- 45 It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall all be taught of God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father, comes to Me.

Matthew 13:44-46

- 44 The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found and hid again; and from joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.
- 45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking fine pearls,
- 46 And upon finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it.

Matthew 13:23

- 23 And the one on whom seed was sown on the good soil, this is the man who hears the word and understands it; who indeed bears fruit and brings forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, and some thirty."

John 4:10, 14

- 10 If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."
- 14 But whoever drinks of the water that I will give him shall never thirst; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life.

We want to welcome you here to University. If you are visiting us today a special welcome for you to come back and join us when you can and would ask if you would remain after services a brief moment so we might get the chance of meeting and greeting you here in person. We would also like to invite you to stay and be our guest with our monthly fellowship luncheon at the SLC following services. Welcome!

Looking for a church home? Want to know more about a walk with Him. Want to set up a group or personal bible study. Have a need or know of someone who does. We would love to know how we may serve you.

Invite someone to be a part of our worship and study because our personal invitation goes a long way as a great referral to connect those back to God. Check out our website, like us and follow us on Facebook and download our free app for your smart phone and stay connected.

When Jesus said "My sheep hear my voice" the question we can ask ourselves today is are we ready to hear his voice? Are we positioned to listen? Is our heart set to listen to God? A lot of times we may think its being young that may keep us away from following Him and when we grow older we will listen more. And if that's the case and even if we do, how much and what is the level of desire? Today lets examine our level in our own lives and make plans accordingly. A reminder that scriptures used in today's sermon can be found on the back.

Joshua 1:1-2, 5-9

1 Now it came about after the death of Moses the servant of the Lord, that the Lord spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' servant, saying,
2 "Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, cross this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them, to the sons of Israel.

5 just as I have been with Moses, I will be with you; I will not fail you or forsake you.

6 Be strong and courageous, for you shall give this people possession of the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.

7 Only be strong and very courageous; be careful to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, so that you may have success wherever you go.

8 This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it; for then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have success.

9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous! Do not tremble or be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

After Moses's death, Joshua inherited leadership of the Israelites and was charged to take God's chosen people into the Promised Land. Despite his Calling from God you sense that Joshua must have felt challenged by this big task. So God offered Joshua assurance to be with him on the journey ahead for us too the road of life often travels through uncharted territory. We voyage through seasons when the path ahead isn't clearly visible. God's plan may not always be apparent to us, but He has promised to be with us. What greater assurance could we hope for, no matter what uncertainty or challenge we might face? Even when the path is unlit, the Light is with us. But with warning notice again in verse 8 be careful to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, so that you may have success wherever you go. We listen.....trust.....obey. We take on the role of what Joshua was given and place it firmly in our lives today are we up for the challenge?
