PRAYERS NEEDED FOR THE FOLLOW-

ING: Velma Shook has the shingles and is in a lot of pain. Sue Peddy fell last week and broke her leg and had to have surgery again. Claudine goes back to the Doctor in June to see when she will have her knee surgery.

THANK YOU NOTE: Dear Christian Family, Thank you for the plants and cards of sympathy we received after the loss of my mother. We appreciate the prayers and visits during her stay in the hospital. Thank you for the food you provided for our family on the day of the funeral. Your love and support has meant so much to us in our time of grief. With love, The Family of Dorothy Kelsey

THANK YOU NOTE: Many thanks for your faithful prayers for me. Also for the beautiful plant, the food, cards and visits. They sure helped me along the way. Your love is a precious gift. Claudine & J.L.

NEWSLETTER: The newsletter for May from the Miller's is posted on the bulletin board in the hallway by the classrooms.

In Case You Missed It

Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and to him who has no might he increases strength (Isaiah 40:28-29).

It's hard enough to admit we need God; what's even harder is to live like we need Him. Successes in life can cripple us spiritually when we begin to view ourselves as self-sufficient. When we rely on our money, talent, family, or hard work to fix everyday problems, we don't feel like we need God. Ask the people of Israel about this brand of pride. They had just received news that they were going to suffer incredible consequences as a discipline from God. Their crime? They forgot who He was. They lost all sense of how great God is and how much they needed Him. His presence demanded awe and they yawned. For multiple generations, they had rebelliously, willfully, happily done their own thing—and God said, in essence, "Enough!" Facing doom, Isaiah's audience cried out for the Lord. Isaiah answered with a moving description of God's awesome, unchanging nature. "Have you not known? Have you not heard?" "The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary." God is not like us. He's everlasting; we have short, life spans. He never gets tired; we range from drowsy to sleep deprived. He never feels overwhelmed; we are drowning in demands. "His understanding is unsearchable"; our thought processes are transparent and predictable. God is so beyond us, and we need Him. The good news is He delivers exactly what we're desperate for in our weakest moments. "He gives power to the faint, and to him who has no might he increases strength." When your battery runs low, God offers power. When you are weak, He gives His strength. Yet some claim they don't need the Lord—. "I have my act together. With a cavalier plan and solid education, I'm heading in a good direction. My future's bright."

They may not say they don't need God, but they live like it. If that's you, surrender your pride before He brings you low. Bow willingly before God now. Don't wait for Him to force you to your knees. Like Isaiah's original audience, you live in decadent days among people who disdain and dilute God's awesome character. Followers of Christ face a similar choice: flirt with your perceived self-sufficiency until disaster comes, or admit your desperation without Him. When trouble comes, do you rely on yourself or depend on God? Do you take matters into your own hands or wait for God's provision in His timing? Everyone needs the Lord. The sooner you learn this, the more you experience His power and strength.

A very warm welcome to each one of you today as we come together to worship our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! If you are visiting us we welcome you as our guest and invite you back and would also ask if you would remain briefly after services so we might get the chance of meeting you in person. We are glad you have come our way, Welcome!

We at the office have been feeling the true effects of a empty nest around here and the loneliness it brings as our mother resident goose who took to the side of the building for the past month has delivered her 4 goslings of the 5 eggs she had laid. At last we checked we saw her have her young this past Saturday and quickly took the family and left. We have had visitors again from the neighboring offices across the street who were inquisitive to where she was. It was amazing to see how much support she was given...Now if we can translate that passion and concern more for each other we find our love and desire even more now for the creator rather than just the creature that we found in our lives as Paul pointed out. It has been fun watching, waiting, counting the days. But life goes on and continues. Who knows maybe we will see her again next year. So be on the lookout for her and the family because they will be staying in the area. Its been fun "Bird" watching with you all.

This morning I want to focus our attention more on "Application" the one thing that is necessary for Christian growth to happen in our lives and in this church. Just think about it. It was a major problem with the Pharisees in Jesus day. They knew the law, they knew the bible, but did not live out what it said. Does that best describe you or I do we "know" so much bible but do not do what it says? What more of a challenge to know to love someone or to love someone that is not so loveable. Lets dig deeper into our faith of application this day and let God give the increase.
