Graduation 2013

If we work upon marble, it will perish; if we work upon brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon immortal minds and instill into them just principles, we are then engraving that upon tablets which no time will efface, but will brighten and brighten to all eternity."

~ Daniel Webster

As you graduate today,
I pray that you will know,
How very proud we all are of you
Though it may not always show
I thank the Lord every day
For all He's done in you
And through the years that lie ahead,
Know God walks there too.

A warm welcome to each of you as we come to worship our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! We would also like to welcome any visitors we might have and if you are visiting we are glad you have come our way and would ask if you wouldn't mind staying briefly after services so we might meet you in person.

This week we honor our graduates Tyler, Alyssa, and Kasumi please see the special insert in this weeks bulletin that talks more about them individually and make plans to help us celebrate this special time in their life as we honor them with a special get together after evening services at the SLC, Everyone welcome!. For the graduates know that your church family is very proud of you and wish you the very best in the next chapter of your life. Congratulations!

Ever since Jesus came to earth and delivered a new covenant with new hope and promise mankind has seemed to always tried going back to follow a law, and if we are not careful we make what was supposed to lead us to Christ "THE LAW" and make what was supposed to be a relationship with Him and turn it into a religion. God is wanting us to figure out "we can't do it ourselves," and then turn it over to Him, We all need a champion and Savior over what we can't do ourselves and that was what the Law was supposed to show them and now us. We can't do it so we need someone who did what we could not. Then we turn to seek Him out. None of us are really ready for grace if we are still trying to "save ourselves" Today we will be reminding all of us "we can't do it" but HE can!
