

2 Corinthians 10:12

12 We do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves. When they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they are not wise.

Romans 1:21-23

21 For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened.
22 Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools.
23 and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images made to look like a mortal human being and birds and animals and reptiles.

Romans 1:28

28 Furthermore, just as they did not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God, so God gave them over to a depraved mind, so that they do what ought not to be done.

Romans 1:20

20 For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse.

We want to thank each one of you for being here today. Your willingness to come and worship the Lord and be a part of this growing family here at University. If you are visiting we would also ask if you would remain after services so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. Again Thank You and Welcome!

If you are looking for a church home, Wanting someone to talk to, would like to set up a group or personal bible study, in need of assistance or know of someone who does feel free to take the time to meet with us. We would love to know how we may serve you.

This week is 5th Sunday preachers exchange. Tonight be back and come hear the word preached by Garrett Bookout from the Northwest Congregation. I will meet with Sullivan Village this evening who meets at 5:00 P.M. Please come back and make Garret feel welcomed!

There is a growing belief from several outside the faith that don't seem to see the need for a Savior. Its why we are to keep telling the "Good News" and several don't understand why a God would lay down His life. Several other religions reject the idea that for one God had a Son and secondly He surely did not die on a cross. The pushback for several it seems is I don't need a Savior because my life is fine, Sin is not a big deal. God will forgive. The simple answer to all of that is yes God will forgive but are we willing to do what it takes to get His forgiveness. Except the remedy to our dilemma. The best answer is given in Romans which says "The wages of sin is death but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus. Have you accepted the "Good News" have you told someone today about the hope that is in you. I will use a lot of references to the book of Romans which you will find on the back of the bulletin. I use that because the book of Romans was written to Gentiles. We all are Gentiles and this book was written to each of us if we will make application. Lets examine the dilemma together.
