

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

My Hero

My hero is the quiet type,
No marching bands, no media hype,
But through my eyes it's plain to see,
A hero, God has sent to me.
With gentle strength and quiet pride,
All self-concern is set aside.
To reach out to his fellow man,
And be there with a helping hand.
Heroes are a rarity,
A blessing to humanity.
With all they give and all they do,
I'll bet the thing you never knew,
My hero has always been you,

A very warm welcome to each of you, we are glad you are here especially if you are visiting with us. If you are visiting we would ask if you would remain briefly after services so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you in person. If you are looking for a church home, want a bible study or want to know more about the church and the work done here at University we would love to visit with you. Again WELCOME!

I first want to take this time to thank the congregation and the eldership for allowing me and my family a little R & R. Summertime when the kids get out of school seems to be the perfect time to get away and unwind and we will be doing that this upcoming week as we travel back to my home of Michigan. I know where many of you call "Yankee Land". We enjoy it and thank you for this time. I also want to thank Weldon who will be filling in the pulpit these next Sunday's and Bryan for taking the class and Charles for the Wednesday night Devo. It is so good to know we have so many talented men willing to fill in when needed. Thank You!

We also want to thank all the Dad's today and thank you for all what you mean and represent in our lives. We really don't know how to thank you properly so whether you get a tie, a card, a hug or a call of appreciation we all just want to say Happy Father's Day!

In Case You Missed It

Philippians 3:13-14 Brethren, I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet; but one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead. 14 I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

Many of you are also familiar with the passage found in Matthew 6 about not worrying for tomorrow because tomorrow holds its own worries. But here is something interesting just about as often as we worry for tomorrow, we can also fret about yesterday. How many times do we find ourselves saying, "I wish things could be the way they were, I wish I was younger, I wish I could fit into those clothes again, I wish I didn't make that terrible mistake...you fill in the blank"? The Lord doesn't want us constantly looking back at what once was. Our enemy does — he wants us to feel discouraged and defeated in past failures, helpless and have us reminiscing in our minds over and over on what we can never change. Sure, if we need to repent or make something right, we should go ahead and do it. But God doesn't want us drowning in self-pity or regret about past mistakes, or hopelessly longing for what can never be again. He wants us to look ahead. He wants us to trust Him where we will be going with Faith and it's well based in everything Jesus has done for us, promised us, and called us to. So, let's stop looking back in fear or bondage to the past — or worrying so much about tomorrow. Let's move ahead and press toward the new things that the Lord has for us in our lives one day at a time....today....is all we have got for sure and lets plan on making it the best because fully knowing that our God is always making things new, and redeeming what was before.
