

A Christian Father Will ...

1. Put the kingdom of God first in his life and teach the same to his family (Matt. 6:33).
2. Teach his sons and daughters to love, respect, and obey their parents.
3. Be a loving and considerate father and husband.
4. Not only provide the physical things, but the spiritual things as well for his family.
5. Be honest in all of his dealings with others.
6. Set aside the first day of the week for his family to worship. (Hebrews 10:25).
7. Be big enough to love and respect the desires and freedoms of each family member.
8. Rule his household with great love.
9. Never speak or act in a manner that is unbecoming to a Christian father.

In Case You Missed It

Isaiah 58:11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

Most of us know that during the Great Depression, poverty swept across America ripping up dreams and scattering hopes to the wind. One such poverty twister hit a small part of Texas where a man named Yates ran a sheep ranch. Struggling even to keep food on the table, Yates and his wife did all they could to survive. Finally, they had to accept a government subsidy or lose their home and land to the creditors. One day, a geologic crew from a large oil company came knocking. With Yates' permission, they wanted to drill a wildcat well on his property, promising him a large portion of the profits if they struck oil. "What could I lose?" thought Yates, and he signed the papers. The oil crew immediately set up the machinery and began drilling. Five hundred feet down, they came up dry. Eight hundred feet, dry. One thousand feet they sunk the shaft, and still no oil. Finally, at a little over eleven hundred feet, they tapped into one of the richest oil reserves in Texas and soon the well was pumping eighty thousand barrels of oil a day. Overnight, Yates and his family became millionaires. His property, once called Yate's Field, became known as Yate's Pool. And soon hundreds of oil wells dotted the land where once only sheep grazed. My question for us is what if they had stopped at a thousand feet? I believe that there is a well of blessing within us that is just waiting to be found. And the victory will only come when we dig for it. We need to keep pressing on even when the circumstances look their bleakest! Maybe we stopped too soon we need to not stop when we get discouraged. We need to expect great things! Be encouraged! Keep digging!
