

WHAT MAKES A DAD

God took the strength of a mountain,
 The majesty of a tree,
 The warmth of a summer sun,
 The calm of a quiet sea,
 The generous soul of nature,
 The comforting arm of night,
 The wisdom of the ages,
 The power of the eagle's flight,
 The joy of a morning in spring,
 The faith of a mustard seed
 The patience of eternity,
 The depth of a family need,
 Then God combined these qualities,
 When there was nothing more to add,
 He knew His masterpiece was complete,
 And so,

He called it ... Dad

WELCOME

We want to thank you for being here to worship the Lord today. We are grateful to each one who plays their part in His Kingdom. If you are visiting we would ask if you would remain briefly after services so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. If there is anything we can do to reach out to you in any way feel free to take the time and meet with us.

Looking for a church home? Want to set up a group or personal study? Looking for online resources? Have a question of us? Need some kind of assistance or know of someone who does? Feel free to get with us when you can to see how we may serve you.

I want to thank the congregation for allowing us a little "Get away time" as we travel back up to Michigan for our annual vacation. We are so appreciative of the time and thank you for it. I also want to thank both Josh Mallow and Monte Jennings for the ability to fill in during my absence. Josh is a deacon at Sullivan Village who works with the youth and camp Lu Jo and has been filling in for congregations in the area recently. He will be here for all Sunday services today so please give him a warm welcome. Then next Sunday Monte Jennings retired minister at Northwest will be filling in on the 26th for class and both services. I am indeed thankful to both men and what they provide in service to Him in this way. Thank You!

In Case You Missed It

1 John 2:5-6 but whoever keeps His word, in him the love of God has truly been perfected. By this we know that we are in Him: 6 the one who says he abides in Him ought himself to walk in the same manner as He walked.

Momentum is a word we hear but what is it? Well in simple terms it is the force or speed of movement that carries an object to its final destination. If you want to break through, you need to have a certain amount of momentum. Do we understand that in order for a rocket to blast into space, it needs tremendous momentum to break the gravitational barrier — but with the enormous power of jet engines and rocket fuel the ship is propelled faster and faster till it breaks free of the earth's gravitational pull. With us often our challenge is gaining the spiritual momentum to break through. It requires real power. Eric Liddell, the Olympic runner once remarked that the Lord requires "muscular Christians." Believers who are serious in their faith-walk are people who stand steadfastly against difficult obstacles, and who pray with great fervency and devotion for the causes of their Lord. This produces spiritual power for significant breakthroughs in the spirit realm. Sin and self-indulgence will compromise and slow the spiritual momentum required for our break through. Why I think Paul compared the Olympian who exercised control of the body in all things. We do the same spiritually but if we nourish the vision and cultivate the habit of pressing on to the higher calling, we'll be inspired to forsake our sins and focus on the glory and joy of the Lord's victory. And one more thing: it is often true that some of the biggest battles, require the greatest momentum and perseverance (just like the rocket blast into outer space), will occur just before the breakthrough to victory. Our challenge is to regain momentum in our spiritual life why its called the renewing of our mind and we do that through repentance toward God, and steadfast perseverance in that work He has told us to do. There is a great victory waiting for us from Him who strengthens us as Philippians 4:13 indicates.
