

Scriptures Used In Today's Sermon

Numbers 11:19-23

- 19 You shall eat, not one day, nor two days, nor five days nor ten days, nor twenty days,
20 but a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you; because you have rejected the Lord who is among you and have wept before Him, saying, "Why did we ever leave Egypt?"
21 But Moses said, "The people, among whom I am, are 600,000 on foot; yet You have said, 'I will give them meat, so that they may eat for a whole month.'
22 Should flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to be sufficient for them? Or should all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to be sufficient for them?"
23 The Lord said to Moses, "Is the Lord's power limited? Now you shall see whether My word will come true for you or not."

Matthew 8:5-13

- 5 And when Jesus entered Capernaum, a centurion came to Him, imploring Him,
6 and saying, "Lord, my servant is lying paralyzed at home, fearfully tormented."
7 Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him."
8 But the centurion said, Lord, I am not worthy for You to come under my roof, but just say the word, and my servant will be healed.
9 For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one, 'Go!' and he goes, and to another, 'Come!' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it."
10 Now when Jesus heard this, He marveled and said to those who were following, "Truly I say to you, I have not found such great faith with anyone in Israel.
11 I say to you that many will come from east and west, and recline at the table with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven,
12 but the sons of the kingdom will be cast out into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth,"
13 And Jesus said to the centurion, "Go, it shall be done for you as you have believed." And the servant was healed that very moment.

Joshua 2:8-14

- 8 Now before they lay down, she came up to them on the roof,
9 and said to the men, "I know that the Lord has given you the land, and that the terror of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land have melted away before you.
10 For we have heard how the Lord dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed.
11 When we heard it, our hearts melted and no courage remained in any man any longer because of you; for the Lord your God, He is God in heaven above and on earth beneath.
12 Now therefore, please swear to me by the Lord, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father's household, and give me a pledge of truth,
13 and spare my father and my mother and my brothers and my sisters, with all who belong to them, and deliver our lives from death."
14 So the men said to her, "Our life for yours if you do not tell this business of ours, and it shall come about when the Lord gives us the land that we shall deal kindly and faithfully with you."

2 Peter 5-11

- 5 Now for this very reason also, applying all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence, and in your moral excellence, knowledge,
6 and in your knowledge, self-control, and in your self-control, perseverance, and in your perseverance godliness,
7 and in your godliness brotherly kindness, and in your brotherly kindness, love.
8 For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they render you neither useless nor unfruitful in the true knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
9 For he who lacks these qualities is blind or short-sighted, having forgotten his purification from his former sins.
10 Therefore brethren be all the more diligent to make certain about His calling and choosing you, for as long as you practice these things you will never stumble;
11 for in this way the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be abundantly supplied to you.

WELCOME

We want to take this time to welcome each of you here to services at University. Today we also take the time to honor our Fathers. Happy Father's Day! We are so glad you have come our way and invite you back the next time you are able. If you are a visitor today, we would also ask if you would remain briefly after services so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here. Thank You and Welcome!

Looking for a church home? We would love to sit down and visit with you. Have a need or know of someone who does? Would like to set up a group or personal bible study? Please take the time to meet with us. We would love to know how we may serve you.

It does not matter who you are we all have varied faiths. Even if we have been a Christian for any length of time we too may question, doubt, have struggles. Today we will examine those who had just as I described and come from some surprising sources in the bible. We will also find that there can be those with very little knowledge of God that had great faith. Lets look at both examples today. Reminder that scripture found in today's sermon can also be found on the back.

In Case You Missed It

John 3:8 The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit.

Often in the Bible you will see the word wind or breath. The root meaning of these words, both in Hebrew and Greek, is almost always Spirit. It is important to keep in mind that we can never dictate which direction the wind will blow. It would be absurd to think we could! The wind blows as it will. And in the same way, the Spirit of God blows where it wishes. Well if this is so, how can we be filled with the Spirit? Must we jump up and catch it and just hope for the best? No it is more like we need to be like a windmill. Windmills were designed to be propelled by the wind, no matter which direction it's blowing, in order to generate power. To be empowered by the Holy Spirit, we must do the same. We must be sensitive to which direction He is blowing in order to make sure we are getting filled! Let's submit ourselves once again to the Spirit of God today! Take heed to which direction the Spirit is blowing and be empowered to do the work He has called us to!! We can do nothing without Him!
