HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

WHAT MAKES A DAD

God took the strength of a mountain, The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need, Then God combined these qualities When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so,
He called it ... Dad

In Case You Missed It

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise (Psalm 51:17, ESV).

Before a horse can be useful to its owner, it has to be broken because a unbroken stallion is proud and strong.
It will paw and snort and let no one ride it. But then a bit goes in its mouth, a saddle goes on its back, and someone climbs up and hangs on. The horse immediately starts to buck, because it doesn't want to be broken—but eventually it stops fighting and surrenders to the will of its master. Sometimes we have that same stubborn, rebellious, self-sufficient spirit within us don't we, and God often breaks those attitudes because they keep us from experiencing true intimacy with Him. Have you ever been broken? Brokenness is empty-handedness before God. It makes no demands. It is finding in Him to be enough. It says not only "God, I need You," but "God, You are all I need." What are some of the things God breaks? Here are some of the big ones: Stubbornness. "I am going to do this my way." If you are one of God's children, that attitude is on its way out. You can fight with Him for a long time if you want, but your stubbornness will eventually be broken. Pride. "I know better; I am better." God hates pride in the hearts of His children. He hates it in my heart; He hates it in yours. People who have been greatly used by God have come to grips with the need to dispense with all pride and to humble themselves. Will-fulness. "You can't make me! You can't tell me I'll do what I want, when I want." That's willfulness, and it is also on its way out. God will use whatever He has to use to remove it from your heart and life. Independence. "I can make it without You." Nothing will stop your intimacy with the Father like an attitude of self-sufficiency.
Recognize your weakness and rely on His strength. God will use broken health, careers, dreams, relationships, promises, and hearts to rid our lives of the things that hinder intimacy with Him. Some say a loving God wouldn't allow pain, but God's love is not a pampering love; it's a perfecting love, God is producing something in us—the likeness of His Son—and He is going to do whatever it takes to make that happen. You might want to get off the program, but any other path will lead you to a place you don't want to be. You will never experience true intimacy with God until you are able to come before Him in genuine humility, utterly desperate for Him. We all need to be broken.

We want to take this time to thank each and everyone of you for choosing to worship with us this day. I know we have said this before but each one of you play a very important role in the body of Christ as we come to worship and serve Him. If you are visiting today, you are our honored guest and would invite you back the next time you are able. If you are visiting please remain after services a brief moment so we might get the opportunity of meeting you in person. You are only a stranger once. Thank you for being here!

If at any time you have a question of us, want to know more about the church and the work that goes on here, would like to meet with the elders, want to set up a personal or group bible study, looking for a church home or know of some kind of need we can help with please meet with us either by calling the office or stopping by within the week we would love the opportunity.

Today lets show someone just what Jesus means to us and what Jesus has to offer everyone...Lets be ready to give the joy that is found within us. Lets invite just one to be a part of what God has for all of us found in His Kingdom. Eternity is closer that we think and planning for it now shows we can present God a heart of wisdom as Psalms 90 points out. The ever transforming saving gospel is for all. Help spread the good news in your life with someone today!
