

If a man is too busy to meet to
Worship God twice on Sunday
And once on Wednesday night,
He has more business than God
Intended for him to have.

IN PRAISE OF FATHERS

Fathers are wonderful people,
Too little understood,
And we do not sing their praises
As often as we should.

Somehow Father seems to be
The man who pays the bills,
While Mother binds up little hurts
And nurses all our ills.

Father struggles every day
To live up to his image-
As protector and provider
And "hero of the scrimmage."

And perhaps that is the reason
We sometimes get the notion
That fathers are not subject
To the thing we call emotion.

But if you look inside Dad's heart
Where no one else can see,
You'll find he's sentimental
And as soft as he can be.

And like our Heavenly Father,
He's a guardian and a guide—
Someone whom you can count on
To walk close by your side.
