
“ People don’t miss
church services
because they live
too far from the building; it’s because they live too far from God!”

Welcome to our services this morning! If you are visiting the first time we would ask if you would give us a chance to meet you after services. We encourage you to stay a little after services so we can shake your hand and introduce ourselves to you. If there is any one here today that has a need, have a question, would like to study the bible, need of prayers, make sure you bring this to the attention of an elder. Welcome!

A recent study of younger adults were asked the question Has Christianity Left You? or Why have you left church? And time after time response after response most replied because it is "hallow" so what's the point? All too often what people see outside the church doors really matters. We may show one "look" here and something completely different out in the world and believe me people are watching. That's why Jesus called us to be different, the salt, the light, in our everyday living. Something real! If all the world sees is something intellectual "just the facts" about our faith but never see our faith in action, I will use the expression "action speaks louder than words." Are you living for Christ daily? Is your walk with Him real and are we showing that. Living that everyday and not just on the weekend. If we truly exercise our faith, others WILL take notice and ask about the Hope that is in you. When we do that, the Church will grow and God will give the increase!
