

Dynamic Worship

Make Sunday worship a priority:

It is nothing less than meeting with God.

Don't bring God leftovers:

Get plenty of sleep on Saturday night and come to worship with an alert and refreshed mind.

Prepare your mind:

Train your mind to think on spiritual things.

Be on time:

Rushing makes it hard to settle into meditation.

Bring your Bible:

Coming to worship without your Bible is like going out to drive your car without your keys.

Open your mouth and sing:

Singing is not an option. It is a command. Be friendly: Family members should know and love each other.

Listen carefully to the sermon:

It will encourage the speaker and he will do a better job. It will also show non-Christians that we are serious.

Make your worship God-centered, not man centered:

Worship is primarily a giving situation. It is in giving of ourselves that we receive.

It is so good to know we have such capable people who can fill in when called upon. This week we are so fortunate to have Mr. Kent Marcum to do the same this week. This congregation has known and supported his work in Ecuador for many years. We are so glad you are here and please as we have mentioned everyone please stay for our luncheon to begin shortly after services if you can. Thank You for the time away and see you soon.

In Case You Missed It

Genesis 5:24 And Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him.

Sometimes, the more significant, powerful or influential someone is, the less you know about him or her. There are some people of influence whose names most of us have never heard, and about whom we know almost nothing, yet they make decisions which affect millions of lives. Enoch is a Biblical character about whom we know hardly anything besides his age and genealogy, but we do know this - - that Enoch walked with God - - and then God took him. What an example! Is there anything greater that can be said about someone than, "He walked with God?" Enoch's life was eternally distinguished by this one characteristic: his personal relationship with the Lord. He somehow maintained a degree of divine fellowship that was so pleasing to God that He just transformed the man's earthly body and took him to glory without ever experiencing death, and this was long before the Holy Spirit was poured out on all flesh. But this ought to be the simple secret of the life of every believer: walk with Him, because the mystery that was hidden from mankind is now revealed to us through His Son — "Christ in you — the HOPE OF GLORY," so that now, every truly born again soul can walk with the living God through His constantly indwelling presence. Do we realize the amazing opportunity we've been given? The simplicity of this truth cannot be overstated. The Lord Himself told Martha "One thing is necessary"...intimacy with Him; a conscious choice to walk with God, to think about Him, to look at Him, to talk with Him, rest in Him, obey Him, care about Him, serve Him, and love Him in a million ways. We are all guaranteed the resurrection that Enoch experienced because Jesus walked with God and totally pleased Him. And we have the choice to follow His example of intimacy, just as Enoch did.
