

PRAY EVERY DAY

As you look at the life of Jesus, you see that he spent a lot of time in prayer.

Jesus set the example for us how to live.

And as we seek to follow in his steps, we need to spend a lot of time in prayer.

In the Old Testament there were set times of prayer.

We do not have set times of prayer, but it is all right for individuals to have set times of prayer.

Many people pray when they get up in the morning.

They pray at their devotional times.

They pray before they go to bed at night.

They pray at the meals.

And they pray at other times.

Paul said, "Pray without ceasing." I Thessalonians 5:17

A very warm welcome to each of you as we come together to worship the Lord! If you are visiting we are so glad you have come our way and would ask if you would remain after services so we might get acquainted with you better. If you have any questions of us, would like a bible study, or want to know more about the work here at University feel free to get with us at your convenience. Again Welcome !

My family and I want to thank once again the elders and this congregation for allowing us to get away for awhile with our vacation. We had a fabulous time going back to Michigan with great weather, lots of good fishing, golfing and plenty of relaxation everything was perfect except having to contend with the very large amounts of mosquitoes we had to deal with. Joshua commented this was probably the best vacation ever. THANK YOU!

We hear so often the phrase "Trust and Obey" and as we have been focusing on trusting the Lord more in our lives, what about Obeying? That is a little more of a challenge isn't it? Just ask the average two year old, if you could, to see why its so difficult for them. We don't really like to have to obey and that's the point so today we will examine what it will take for us to WANT to obey instead of having to. Find out it's a bit difference with our attitude in serving Him more.
