A very warm welcome to each one of you today, we are very glad you are here and welcome you back if you are visiting us. If you are visiting we would ask if you would remain briefly after services so we might get the chance of meeting you in person and personally welcoming you here to University!

A brief note coming off our family vacation. Vacations are a wonderful time to get away and recharge the batteries so Cae, the boys and I have appreciated the time off, to get away, relax and enjoy some "get away" time. We thank the congregation and the elders for this time. A very special thanks goes to Weldon for filling in the pulpit these last two weeks, Bryan and James for taking the class on Sunday morning and Charles for Wednesday night. It is a great feeling to know you all can be counted on when asked and for that I thank you!

This week starts the final week of camp with Roger's "Stars" week. Be praying for the campers all this week and if anyone would like to help out in the kitchen, University's Day to help is Tuesday from 10-4, if you can go and want to help out you can see me for the details.

Today we will be looking at a subject that hasn't been discussed all too often lately and maybe its because it has been placed on the backburner, maybe a distance to the race to romantic relations that is heavily sought after and that subject is "Friendship". Biblical friendship defined and found in the writings of the book of Proverbs. What is true friendship? How can I get it? Do I have a true friend? And lastly we will ask ourselves Am I one? Let's look at how the bible describes true friendship.
