
“ People don’t miss
church services
because they live
too far from the building; it’s because they live too far from God!”

We would like to welcome you to our services today! We are glad you are here and welcome you back. Please stay around after services a minute so we can get to know you a little better.

This week is "Stars Week" the final week of camp sessions at camp Lu Jo. Some of you know it is "Rogers Week," Roger Schwenn from Sullivan Village as camp director. Please pray for the efforts of camp this week and if there is any interested in helping in the kitchen this week please see me. Keep the campers in your prayers.

Already back from vacation and summer is in full swing. HOT!!! I know the expression "If you can't take the heat get out of the kitchen." I don't know what to do in this case except stay indoors as much as possible.

How well are we focused on TODAY. I say that because so much of our world today is so focused on what will happen tomorrow, the future. But as we will see scripture points out in Matthew 6:34 Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own. Jesus wants us to focus all our efforts on today. We are not wired or even made for worrying about the future, for tomorrow will worry about itself. It's hard not to be concerned about the future because the world tells us to. But our Lord wants us to concentrate on Today and what we can do Today. Lets study how we can start to rethink about today and all what we can do for Him!

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Galatians 6:9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. William Wilberforce was a British politician, philanthropist, and a leader of the movement to abolish the slave trade. Wilberforce was convinced of the importance of religion, morality and education. So he led a campaign against the British Parliament to abolish slavery in the late 1700's around 1791. During the course of his intense efforts, Wilberforce came to a desperate place of discouragement, feeling he had absolutely no more strength to continue. In this condition he was about to give up, when his elderly friend, John Wesley, lying on his deathbed, was informed of his friend Williams distress. Wesley requested pen and paper, wrote these words, "Unless God has raised you up for this very thing, you will be worn out by the opposition of men and devils. But if God be for you, who can be against you? Are all of them stronger than God? Oh be not weary of well-doing! Go on, in the name of God and in the power of his might, till even American slavery shall vanish away before it." John Wesley died six days later, but William Wilberforce fought for forty-five more years, and in 1833, three days before his own death, witnessed the abolition of slavery in Britain. Do not grow weary in well-doing, for we can still triumph! It's exactly when everything looks hopeless that our God has opportunity to display His awesome power. Even the great men that changed history needed a word of encouragement now and then – so be encouraged, and be an encourager! You never know when you may enable another one in your life to continue pressing on, or how that may change even the world!
