We want to take time to recognize you this morning and point out that each of you play a important role in the work that is done here at University. We are so glad you have made the decision to be with us. If you are visiting we are so glad you have come our way and invite you back the next time you are able. We would also ask if you are visiting to stay around after services briefly so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. Again Welcome!

If at any time you have a question of us, looking for some assistance, looking for a church home, desire to set up a bible study or group bible study or want to know more about the work here and how you can fit in please feel free to visit with us at your convenience. You may get with one of our elders or stop by the office during the week. We would love to visit with you.

Several years ago the Marine Corp had a motto that said they were looking for a few good men. Jesus during His ministry also sought out a few good men to spread His gospel didn't He? So what about today isn't Jesus still seeking those who will work in His field. He told us to pray to the Lord to sent out reapers for the fields are ripe unto harvest. Who are these people today? Where can we find them? Is that person Me? Today lets examine our part of a invitation that was given some 2,000 years ago and see if that invitation applies to ME today? A few good Men or Women are still needed in His Kingdom today will that be you or I in our following Him?

In Case You Missed It

Therefore, preparing your minds for action, and being sober-minded, set you hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ (1 Peter 1:13).

The Apostle Peter urged us to prepare “your minds for action, and being sober-minded, set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.” The energy to live the Christian life is found in one place—in our focused, conscious choice to put our hope in Jesus. Hope is the confident expectation that something better is coming tomorrow. As you look to the future: Don't set your hope on your physical health—set your hope on Jesus. “So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day” (2 Corinthians 4:16). Don't set your hope on your stuff—set your hope on Jesus. “And Jesus said to them, Take care, and be on your guard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions” (Luke 12:15). Don't set your hope on people—set your hope on Jesus. “Put not your trust in princes, in a son of man, in whom there is no salvation. Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the Lord his God” (Psalm 146:3, 5). No leader, minister, elder, family member, friend, or spouse can be everything that we hope and dream they will be. People, places, and positions always let us down. Only Jesus is worthy of all our hopes and all our confidence. Maybe you find yourself a little down today. Like Peter standing on the water, the moment you take your eyes off the Lord you start to sink (Matthew 14:22-23). Lift up your eyes; set your hope fully on Jesus. Our confident expectation is in God, who sees, knows, and every righteous decision will be rewarded. Every wrong choice will be judged. Every motive will be revealed. Is your faith faltering as you look at the world around you? Are you struggling to carry on? Do you need hope that will endure? Number one set your hope fully on Jesus.
