We want to take this time in welcoming you here to services at University. We are so glad you have come and welcome you back. If you are our visitor today a special greeting to you and we hope you feel right at home. If you have any questions, looking for a church home or would like to speak to any of our elders please see an usher so he can direct you to whom you need to speak with. Again welcome and please stay after services awhile so we might get the chance of meeting you in person.

I was very excited to get a call from Rodger Schwenn from Sullivan Village asking if there was anyone interested here in helping one Saturday this month with the cleanup in the Moore area that was so devastated by the tornadoes. We will be only going up one Saturday either the 20th or 27th. If you are interested I need to know if you would be going and we are also taking a survey to which day is better to help fit most of our busy schedules. If you have any interest and would like to serve in this way please see me sometime after services.

Today we will be discussing motivation. What gets you motivated to do or not do something? How motivated are you in the faith? In Christ? A lot of times we can become tired, frustrated maybe down right lazy and become very unmotivated. Today we will be getting a little extra motivation from a great motivator the apostle Paul through all of what Christ has done for us and be motivated no matter what is happening in my life right now. Out text is 2 Corinthians 5.

In Case You Missed It

Zephaniah 2:2-3 Before the decree is issued, Or the day passes like chaff, Before the Lord's fierce anger comes upon you, Before the day of the Lord's anger comes upon you! Seek the Lord, all you meek of the earth, Who have upheld His justice. Seek righteousness, seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden In the day of the Lord's anger.

Over in our generation we have seen some devastators to remember from 9/11 to the OKC bombing, Hurricanes, earthquakes to our recent tornadoes but I came across this story in 1883, Captain Sampson of the British navy witnessed one of the greatest volcanic eruptions in history which took place in Indonesia. The eruption was so powerful that its shock waves traveled around the world seven times. The volcano shot miles of debris into the atmosphere which fell to earth as far away as Madagascar — over 2000 miles distance. Captain Sampson wrote in the ship's log: "I am writing this blind in pitch darkness. We are under continual rain of pumice-stone and dust. So violent are the explosions that the ear-drums of over half my crew have been shattered...I am convinced that the Day of Judgment has come." Even though scripture says there will be earthquakes and wars and rumors of wars but the fact is these men witnessed something extraordinary, and it caused them to ponder the inevitable question — Is this the end? What was the crew thinking and feeling as they were deafened by the massive explosions, and blinded by the clouds of smoke and ash? To them it must have been as if the sun had become like sackcloth! Did this experience change their lives? Were they now powerfully aware of how fragile life is? Did they suddenly begin to examine what their lives had consisted of up to that moment? Imagine yourself in that boat as these events are taking place. Now picture yourself at the present moment, are you thinking about what your life has been about, or what it is now? Are you thinking about what it could be?? We need to start to recognize that eruptions are already taking place, and these are the Lord's warnings to this sleeping world; warnings that His return in NEAR! God is looking for people who are awake, who are wise, who understand and who know Him, so they can do exploits and can shine like stars in a darkening world—are you one of them?
