

Scriptures Used In Today's Sermon

2 Peter 2:9-10

- 9 then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment,
- 10 and especially those who indulge in the lust of defiling passion and despise authority.

John 13:13

- 13 You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am.

Jude 1:4

- 4 For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Luke 17:7-10

- 7 Will any one of you who has a servant plowing or keeping sheep say to him when he has come in from the field, 'Come at once and recline at table'?
- 8 Will he not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, and dress properly, and serve me while I eat and drink, and afterward you will eat and drink'?"
- 9 Does he thank the servant because he did what was commanded?
- 10 So you also, when you have done all that you were commanded, say, 'We are unworthy servants, we have only done what was our duty.

1 Corinthians 7:22-24

- 22 For he who was called in the Lord while a slave, is the Lord's freedman; likewise he who was called while free, is Christ's slave.
- 23 You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men.
- 24 Brethren, each one is to remain with God in that condition in which he was called.

John 12:26

- 26 If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me; and where I am, there My servant will be also; if anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

John 15:20

- 20 Remember the word that I said to you, A slave is not greater than his master. If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you;

John 15:14-15

- 14 You are My friends if you do what I command you.
- 15 No longer do I call you slaves, for the slave does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all things that I have heard from My Father I have made known to you.

In scripture we are asked to follow Him. What all does that mean? What does that look like? To be a follower do we just hear the word? As a follower do we take action and do we serve? Is service the only thing we do. What about Him being Lord? Is that ever a consideration. Today we will take a closer look to what it means to be a slave to Christ. Slavery has never been a good image but this is the true definition to who's we are. Reminder that scriptures used in today's lesson can be found on the back.

In Case You Missed It

Luke 8:15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

A story is told about an official that served on a mission board, who knew it takes more than just desire to make a missionary. One day he was appointed to examine a candidate for the mission field. He told the young man to be at his house at six o’clock in the morning. The young man agreed and arrived at six o’clock sharp. The examiner kept him sitting alone in the room until ten. Then he finally came in and said abruptly, young man, can you write your name? A little taken aback by his question, the man paused. Before he could get a word out, the examiner blurted “What, you don’t know what it is?” The mission board official put him through a series of questions of that nature and then went to report back to the mission board. “Okay,” he said, “he will do.” I tried his patience for hours and hours and he did not break down. Then I insulted him and he did not lose his temper. This candidate answered with patience, fortitude, and gentleness. His faith was vindicated by the very quality of his character. He will make a good missionary.” Whether we realize it or not - - we all are in the mission field. Our patience is bound to be tested in ways we’ve never imagined and guess what some are watching even though sometimes we find it may be unfair and unkind at times. But standing strong in the Lord in the face of offensive treatment and enduring seasons of long-suffering is a testimony in and of itself - - that will win souls! Are you weary from the walk? Get your second wind! Count it all joy! You have endured much and you will see victory! Not only here on earth but when we meet the Lord!
