

Scriptures Used In Today's Sermon

Isaiah 53:1-3

- 1 Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?
- 2 He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground. He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him.
- 3 He was despised and rejected by mankind, a man of suffering, and familiar with pain. Like one from whom people hide their faces he was despised, and we held him in low esteem.

Acts 24:25

- 25 As Paul talked about righteousness self control and judgment to come Felix was afraid and said that's enough for now you may leave when I find it convenient I will send for you.

Luke 24:13-32

- 13 Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem.
- 14 They were talking with each other about everything that had happened.
- 15 As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them;
- 16 but they were kept from recognizing him.
- 17 He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?" They stood still, their faces downcast.
- 18 One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, "Are you the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?"
- 19 "What things?" he asked. "About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people.
- 20 The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him;
- 21 but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel, and what is more, it is the third day since all this took place.
- 22 In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning
- 23 but didn't find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive.
- 24 Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see Jesus."
- 25 He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken!"
- 26 Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?"
- 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.
- 28 As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus continued on as if he were going farther.
- 29 But they urged him strongly, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them.
- 30 When he was at the table with Them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them.
- 31 Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight.
- 32 They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?"

Revelation 1:12-18

- 12 I turned around to see the voice that was speaking to me. And when I turned I saw seven golden lampstands,
- 13 and among the lampstands was someone like a son of man, dressed in a robe reaching down to his feet and with a golden sash around his chest.
- 14 The hair on his head was white like wool, as white as snow, and his eyes were like blazing fire.
- 15 His feet were like bronze glowing in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of rushing waters.
- 16 In his right hand he held seven stars, and coming out of his mouth was a sharp, double-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining in all its brilliance.
- 17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. Then he placed his right hand on me and said: "Do not be afraid I am the First and the Last.
- 18 I am the Living One, I was dead, and now look, I am alive for ever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and Hades.

This is our 5th Sunday preachers exchange please give a warm welcome to Steven Patterson from 8th and Lee who will be our guest preacher for tonight's service.

A lot of times there are perceived ideas and images we have about God and His son Jesus Christ. What does Jesus look like to you? Do we have a certain image. What about our expectations to what Jesus will do or not do. Today lets examine a little more closely to what Jesus looks like and see how that has fit to our idea in contrast to what has been written in scripture. Remember scripture for today's lesson can be found on the back.
