A very warm welcome to each one of you today. We are so glad you have come and if you are visiting with us be sure to stay a brief moment after services so we might get the chance of meeting you in person and welcoming you here. If you have a question of us, if we can be of service, if you are looking for a church home, we would like the opportunity of answering any questions you might have we hope you feel very welcome at services today and would invite you back.

I think during this time we have a lot of things and distractions that take us away from serving God more as we should. We feed ourselves with all kinds of things and not just food even though that is a big one we will find in todays message. I feed myself with entertainment and feed myself with selfish desires and when the day is done I even have to ask myself how much have I given God today. So for HUNGERING for God. Am I, do I, can I learn to hunger more? Do I have a earnest hunger for God or has something or someone else replaced it so then at the end of the day I can say "No thanks, I am rather full" because there is only so much appetite we have in a day and when its full we are satisfied. But spiritually speaking is there still something missing in your and my life because as we will find today we can be just like the disciples and can flat miss it. Our text is found in John chapter 4.

1. - DOWN - to be rooted and grounded in truth
2. - UP - to draw nearer and nearer to God

Ruth 1:16-17 But Ruth said: "Entreat me not to leave you, Or to turn back from following after you; For wherever you go, I will go; And wherever you lodge, I will lodge; Your people shall be my people, And your God, my God. Where you die, I will die, And there will I be buried. The Lord do so to me, and more also, If anything but death parts you and me."

When Ruth pledged her allegiance to Naomi and to the God of Israel, it wasn't based on, "What ifs?" or circumstances. It was a faith rooted in her devotion to Naomi and God even to the point of death! So often, we hear people wondering why? "Why this?" or "Why that?" But honestly, "His ways are higher than my ways and His thoughts are higher than my thoughts" — and I don't have easy answers for a lot of the things that happens to us! But what I do know is our faith is not based on "if this" circumstance was changed then I could serve — or "if this" problem didn't exist then my life would be so much easier!

We tend to look at our circumstances, our problems, our status, our situations — however the faith we're called to have is a "whatever and where ever" faith! Maybe we can stop looking at the "what ifs" and "why that" and start looking to the "Who" of our life! The "who" of your life should be Jesus — and when He is the "Who" of your life — then the rest of your life is "whatever and where ever" for your good and His glory!
