WELCOME

We would like to thank and welcome each one that is here today. If you are visiting we are so glad you have come our way and would invite you back the next time you are able. If you are a visitor we would also ask if you would remain briefly after services so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. We would also like to extend an invitation to our monthly luncheon. It's a great time for food and fellowship held over at the SLC following services.

Would you be interested in a home group or personal bible study? Have a need or know of someone who does? Looking for a church home? We would love to sit down and visit with you more on how we may serve you better.

When you download our free church app you will not only stay connected but also have access to a online bible all at your fingertips. Search the app store at ucoclawton and download to your phone or tablet.

We know David as a man after God's own heart as stated in 1 Samuel 13:14 and Acts 13:22. We know the heart that Moses had when he petitioned before God. We also know the heart of vengeance and can be more like Jonah or the sons of Zebedee. Which one are we? Where does our heart go to when being with others? Let each of us examine our heart and see what direction it is more pointed. Scriptures used for today's sermon can be found on the back.
