In the text, Jesus, who had told all of this in response to a question asked by a lawyer, asked the question, "Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?" (Luke 10:36) The lawyer then said, "The one who showed him mercy." And Jesus said, "You go, and do likewise" (Luke 10:37).

Don't be a priest or a Levite, but rather like the Samaritan, you too"...go and do likewise!"

You Aren't A Priest or A Levite, Are You?

It all happened at 52nd and Rogers Lane. Kim and I were headed out to run some errands and we were sitting at the red light waiting to make a right turn onto Rogers. When all of a sudden we see a guy on a bicycle crossing Rogers get hit by an oncoming vehicle. The vehicle stopped, a couple of people got out to see about the cyclist and I put on the hazards and proceeded to dial 911.

While talking to the 911 operator the cars behind me started to honk their horns. Some proceeded to go around me and shocking enough, many cars were going around the cyclist as if nothing had happened. It made me think about Jesus parable of the Good Samaritan in Luke 10.

You remember the story; how a man was going from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among thieves, who stripped him and beat him, leaving him for dead. And as the man was lying there dying a priest came by and seeing him passed by on the other side of the road. Later a Levite came and did the same thing and passed the man by, never once stopping to see if the man was alright. But alas, the Samaritan came by and stopped and tended to the man and got him to safety.

As I sat there on 52nd street watching all of these events unfold I told Kim, "Look at all those priests and Levites." Here's a man, whose just been struck by a car and all others can think of is, "Can I get around all this? I got somewhere else to be!"
