Welcome to University church of Christ! If you are visiting us today we are so glad you are here and welcome you back. We would also ask if you would remain after services a brief moment so we might get the chance of meeting you and introducing ourselves to you. If you are looking for a church home, want to set up a bible study, have a question of us or want a visit please contact one of our ushers, elders or deacons. In addition to that our office is also available throughout the work week. Again Welcome!

Most of us today if asked “why we are here today”? Would give the answer “To worship the Lord” and that indeed is the reason why we meet on the first day of the week to break bread and gather to offer our praise to Him! Is there any other reason? Should there be? Today I want to look at a passage of scripture so differently than most tend to use it. As we study Hebrews 10:25 we will look more closely at verse 24 and make that our challenge, our mission. I will phrase it like this to start using our consideration of stimulation for our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ. And start showing to everyone a want to instead of a have to.

UPDATE: From Charles and Genie Kelsey: We have received a letter of appreciation from the churches of Christ Disaster Relief Effort for our recent $15,000 donation. They are currently assisting in several states in the aftermath of tornadoes, flooding, and fires. This organization immediately responds to any major disaster in the continental U.S. by sending truckloads of emergency food, water, cleaning, and other supplies to disaster victims through a local congregation in the area of the disaster. More information about this effort is available on their website, <http://disasterrelieffort.org>.
