A very warm welcome to each of you here today. If you are visiting us we are very glad and appreciative you are here today, feel free to stay after services a brief moment so we can introduce ourselves to you. It is our prayer and wish that we are doing everything according to God's will and to His word. If you are interested and want to know more about this congregation that meets here at University, His plan, if you would like to set up a bible study, want prayers, desire more resources to help you along the way. We are here for you and can be contacted in the office during the week. Please let us know if we can be of service or any help to you and your family. Again Welcome!

Last week our lesson focused on the "Path" we all take and want to realize this one principle is true every time "direction determines destination" and not intentions or my hopes and dreams but my direction will determine my outcome my final destination, and if we really believe the bible that says "It is not in man", meaning we are not capable "to direct his own path". Then I ask what are we doing about it if anything because the path we are taking is a important one. A eternal one! So what path am I on? Where is it taking me? Can I get off the one I am on? Or do "I" as the bible will tell us just keep going and suffer the consequence's. Today we will look at the prudent verses the simple. Two people, two different responses and two different outcomes and after todays message maybe answer the question. What Path am I taking?

In Case You Missed It

Matthew 7:16-20 You will know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles? Even so, every good tree bears good fruit, but a corrupt tree bears evil fruit. A good tree cannot bear evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and cast into the fire. Therefore by their fruits you will know them.

Most of the time when we read this passage we tend to focus on the fruit that is produced. Okay...But a closer look will reveal that the Lord is really focusing on the tree. The fruit merely demonstrates the quality of the tree. We have all encountered this: there are trees whose fruit is healthy and delicious, and we like to go back to again and again and yet there are other trees whose fruit is scarce or even useless. The fruit doesn't make the tree—the tree makes the fruit. A tree that produces good fruit is firmly rooted in soil which provides just the right amount of water and nourishment. Likewise, those of us whose lives are rooted in and dedicated to God and his word produce good fruit. Others who try to produce good works for "religious" reasons, or to prove or approve of themselves, may produce fruit, but it won't be the fruit Jesus is after. When our focus is on Jesus, and our lives are centered on and in Him, the fruit we produce will not be from self-effort, and its quality will be excellent because it is simply the produce of a good tree. So we need to stop trying to produce good works on our own and with our own strength. Let us tap into the Source of our life—and then watch what GREAT FRUIT He is continually able to produce.
