

Mark 13:33-37

- 33 "Take heed, keep on the alert; for you do not know when the appointed time will come.
- 34 It is like a man away on a journey, who upon leaving his house and putting his slaves in charge, assigning to each one his task, also commanded the doorkeeper to stay on the alert.
- 35 Therefore, be on the alert — for you do not know when the master of the house is coming, whether in the evening, at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning
- 36 In case he should come suddenly and find you asleep.
- 37 What I say to you I say to all, 'Be on the alert!'

1 Thessalonians 5:6

- 6 so then let us not sleep as others do, but let us be alert and sober.

Matthew 24:42-44

- 42 "Therefore be on the alert, for you do not know which day your Lord is coming.
- 43 But be sure of this, that if the head of the house had known at what time of the night the thief was coming, he would have been on the alert and would not have allowed his house to be broken into.
- 44 For this reason you also must be ready; for the Son of Man is coming at an hour when you do not think He will.

WELCOME

We would like to take this time to welcome and thank each one that is here today. If you are visiting us today we invite you back and would ask if you would remain after services a brief moment so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. Again Welcome!

Are you looking for a church home? Is there a need you know of that we can be of help? Would like support and are interested in setting up a group or personal bible study? Please take the time to meet with us we would love to know how we may serve you.

Download our free church app and stay connected. Want more resources? Visit bibletalk.tv there are many studies and video aids you can find there.

For some reason there is something in all of us that seem to defy logic in our lives sometimes. It seems to be in our core and if we are not careful can mislead us. It is the belief and our draw to impossible odds. We like to take chances sometimes with somethings we shouldn't all with the notion of "It wont happen to me." Today we will reason together about assumptions vs God's Word. Feelings against fact. Afterwards hopefully examine ourselves a little more with our beliefs for the future and our future with Him. Do we know? Its too important a subject to just leave to chance. Reminder that scriptures used in today's sermon can be found on the back. Thank you all for being here today.

“A merry heart does good, like medicine”

Proverbs 17:22

MAKE LIFE A LITTLE SWEETER

O let me shed a little light
On someone's path I pray;
I'd like to be a messenger
Of happiness today!

It may be just a phone call,
A smile, or a prayer,
Or long neglected letter
Would lift the edge of care,

I want to spread some happiness
In what I say or do,
Make life a little sweeter
For someone else! Don't you?

-Alice Mortenson

In Case You Missed It

Deuteronomy 31:6

6 Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the Lord your God goes with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you.”

I read a story about a new young partner in a law firm. The senior partners had set extremely high standards and had coached him carefully. He did well in some minor trials but he lost his first big case. When the partners reviewed the trial, they pointed out his errors and suggested different strategies. Even with all their critique, he lost the next big one. He felt terrible. Were they ready to give him the boot? Then one of the partners took him aside. “Look,” he said, “you’re learning. Just keep going. You’ll start winning. Meanwhile, your position is secure. You’re one of us.” Those words were exactly what he needed to hear. Have you ever experienced this kind of compassion when you were feeling hopeless? If we’re believers, we have. The Lord has taken us aside and said. “Yeah, you’ve made some mistakes, but don’t worry — your position is secure. Know that God has provided your security today. Rest assured in Him - - and be sure to convey that same kind of compassion to struggling siblings in the faith. All of us need to be reassured once in a while.
