Isaiah 58:11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

During the Great Depression, poverty swept across America like a whirling tornado, ripping up dreams and scattering hopes to the wind. One such poverty twister hit a small part of Texas where a man named Yates ran a sheep ranch. Struggling even to keep food on the table, Yates and his wife did all they could to survive. Finally, they had to accept a government subsidy or lose their home and land to the creditors. One day, in the midst of this bleakness, a geologic crew from a large oil company came knocking. With Yates’ permission, they wanted to drill a wildcat well on his property, promising him a large portion of the profits if they struck oil. “What could I lose?” thought Yates, and he signed the papers. The oil crew immediately set up the machinery and began drilling. Five hundred feet down, they came up dry. Eight hundred feet, dry. One thousand feet they sunk the shaft, and still no oil. Finally, at a little over eleven hundred feet, they tapped into one of the richest oil reserves in Texas. The hole sprayed its black wealth high into the air, and soon the well was pumping eighty thousand barrels of oil a day. Overnight, Yates and his family became millionaires. His property, once called Yate’s Field, became know as Yate’s Pool. And soon hundreds of oil wells dotted the land where once only sheep grazed. What if they had stopped at a thousand feet?? I believe that there is a well of blessing within us that is just waiting to be found. And the victory will only come when we dig for it. We need to press in when the circumstances look their bleakest! We need to believe that the blessing is there for the taking and not stop when we get discouraged and don’t see the fruit of our labor! We need to expect great things and rich oil in the Spirit! Because this is what the Lord has for each one of us! Our breakthrough is just under our feet! Be encouraged! Keep digging! God has more in store than you can imagine!

A warm welcome to you this morning as we come together to worship our Lord Jesus Christ. If you are visiting us today we are glad you have come our way and ask if you would remain after services so we can meet and greet you. If you have a question of us, want a bible study or need assistance please feel free to contact us anytime. Welcome!

This is our Sunday for our fellowship luncheon directly after services at the SLC please stay and be our guest for dinner and fellowship. Everyone is encouraged to attend. Also for our youth we will be hosting the area youth rally for evening services followed by a small get together and devo at the SLC . Everyone grades 5th grade and up are encouraged to attend.

How much do we find ourselves “Abiding” in the teaching of Christ? Do we concern ourselves with it? Ever think of how important it is? Have we moved on with our lives without it. We are going to consider this found in 2 John 1:9 “Anyone who goes too far and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God”. That’s a pretty stern passage written by John so what will we do with it? John is only going to present 2 choices, those who do and those who don’t. After this morning lets each ask ourselves, which one am I? Our text is found in 2 John.
