Welcome to the University Drive Church of Christ. We are so glad you are here today!

If you are visiting with us we are so encouraged by you and would ask you to stay after services so we might be able to introduce ourselves to you. Again Welcome!

Ever hear people ask the question "Now What?" it usually comes after some completed task. That statement says I am finished what more do you want me to do? Have you ever stopped and asked yourself that question when it comes to our "Christian walk?" It seems that many today just want to hear the minimal requirements on doing something. Just to get by as the expression is used. Just tell me what I need to do and let me get on with it. But as we will see in Colossians 3 Paul reminds us that since we were raised with Him we NOW set, rid, and clothe ourselves. We find there is an answer to the now what from God. Many and myself included were not encouraged to find the "now what" in my life and today we will be looking closer to what we are to become once we are Christians. Today's text will come from Colossians 3:1-17
