Welcome! Especially if you are visiting us today we would like to welcome you back the next time you are able and ask if you would remain briefly after services a quick moment so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. Remembering that we see everyone playing a vital role in service to Him here at University. You are much appreciated.

If you have a question of us, want to set up a group or personal bible study, have a prayer request, looking for a church home or are in need of assistance please get with us to see how we can be of service to you.

*A reminder that we still have some invitation postcards available for us to send out. Have someone in mind? Want us to send it out please contact us with the information and we would love to send a invitation to invite those to services to someone you may know. Keep praying that God may touch those it may come in contact with.

God is Awesome! And for those fortunate to be alive when Jesus walked the earth were able to see His glory. Moses requested to see His glory but was only able to see His "Hinder" part. Jesus came in the form of man so we could see His good works. Today we will keep exploring some of those examples "So we might believe" and may grow more or continue to grow in our faith to Him. Today we will be seeing the true power of The Word that was made flesh and dwelt among us.

In Case You Missed It

Philippians 2:12 Wherefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your salvation with fear and trembling.

One of the paradoxes of our walk is that God’s gifts often require work on our part. After He delivered the Israelites from the Egyptians, the Lord led them to the Promised land and told them He was going to “give” it to them. It wasn’t long before they realized, however, that they were going to have to fight battles and overcome fortified cities in order to inhabit the land. God did promise that they would not have to fight the battles on their own, but even with this divine advantage the Israelites themselves would be required to destroy their enemies — they would still need to fight. They might have preferred that God just give them the land, without having to do anything; to just walk into already built cities and houses without any conflict or opposition. But this was not God’s plan. He desired and expected their full cooperation, expecting them to take serious responsibility for the destiny He had prepared for them, and to grow in faith what we will be discussing this Sunday morning that Faith is Action.....Our situation is similar. Though the gift of our salvation is free, the Lord requires us to work it out....with fear and trembling! [Phil. 2:12]. We are not automatically or supernaturally filled with knowledge of the Bible, or faith to move mountains, or the power to pray without ceasing. Instead, we discover that we have to fight the fight of faith, taking serious responsibility for the destiny He has prepared for us. Are you discouraged because the walk of a believer is more difficult than you imagined and the challenges greater than you expected? Don’t be! God is calling you to the simple responsibility of working out your faith and participating in your own destiny. You can be grateful that He doesn’t treat you like a helpless infant who has no part in shaping his/her life, but as a growing adult who can rejoice in his/her participation with a loving and powerful God who loves and cares for us and wants to “Give” us a chance of eternal life But we work it out we show our faith to others.
