We too feel a loss with Greg, his mother, brother and sister. But one thing we know now that we didn't just a few days ago. I never knew of Chuck to complain or make excuses about any of that and even after his accident which put him in a care facility never complained or blamed God for any of this. We can only take this as a great example for the rest of us to pattern after.

We would like to welcome each of you to the University church of Christ. We are glad you have come to worship our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. If you are visiting us today we want to especially welcome you and ask if you would remain after services a brief moment so we might get the chance of meeting you in person. We are glad you have come our way. Have a question of us? Would like a bible study? Are you looking for a church home? If you have any of these or are in need of assistance please feel free to get with us we would be glad to visit with you.

How precious is life and how and what we do with it makes all the differences in the world. We are saddened by the passing of Charles "Chuck" Ray. I wanted to share a little bit of what his life represented even though because of health was not able to join with us these many years. I wanted to share what Greg posted on Facebook about his dad.

Charles Ray...May 6, 1931-Oct 21, 2014...Born into poverty during the Great Depression, lost his mother, father, and a sister to T.B. by the age of 12, quit school at 13 to support himself and a sister, enlisted in the army while America was at war in Korea, came home from the war with PTSD and went to work in the construction business, married Joyce Patterson who taught him about Jesus, Baptized in 1964 and raised 4 kids in the greatest Christian home a child could ever ask for, suffered through the sorrow of having to bury a son and grandson, there was nothing this man could not build or repair. God made fathers as good as mine but He never made one better. Go rest high on that mountain dad, I'll see you very soon and we will walk through those gates into Heaven together.
