

As a hart longs for flowing streams,
so longs my soul for thee, O God.

Psalm 42:1

WAS YOUR SEAT EMPTY?

In I Samuel 20:18, "Then Jonathan said to David:
'Tomorrow is the New Moon festival.
You will be missed, because your seat will be empty'."

Some of you were missed Sunday because your seat was empty.

I Can't imagine where some of you were or what you were doing.

But we do want you to know you were missed. Hope we see you Sunday.

Welcome to University Church of Christ we are so glad you are here to worship our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We want you to feel welcome and are here to answer any questions you might have of us. We would like for any of our visitors to stay after services so we might get to greet you and especially welcome you to our fellowship luncheon directly following the services at the Student Learning Center. Again Welcome!

There are so many ways we know we are loved by God. Looking at our lives we see His love first hand, His tenderness, His longsuffering for each one of us, and especially His grace. But how often do we see Gods love in His chastening of us, or His disciplines. Are we forgetting the exhortation that was given by the Hebrew writer reminding them in that day and now to us the scripture that is again quoted found in Proverbs 3:11?

"My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, Nor faint when you are reprov'd by Him; 6 For those whom the Lord loves He disciplines and He scourges every son whom He receives." Being chastened is not fun or delightful just like when I think back when my parents had to discipline me. But I knew they loved me and so it is with God. They were doing it for my own good to make me a better person and we find is a very necessary need found in every Christian and before you quickly reply "not me!" consider this scripture in Hebrews where we will be studying in chapter 12. verse 7-8 7 It is for discipline that you endure; God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? 8 But if you are without discipline, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. In the end God will punish everyone but for today will only discipline his children. Know that you are loved today by God always has and always will even when He is correcting us.
