

Ephesians 5:25-33

- 25 Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her,
- 26 that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word,
- 27 so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish.
- 28 In the same way husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.
- 29 For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ does the church,
- 30 because we are members of his body.
- 31 "Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh."
- 32 This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church.
- 33 However, let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

WELCOME

We want to take this time to welcome each of you to University as we come together to worship our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We are so glad each of you have chose to be here today. If you are visiting we are so glad you have come our way and invite you back the next time you are able and would ask if you would remain briefly after services so we might get the chance of meeting you and welcoming you here in person. Again Welcome.

If you are looking for a church home we would love to visit with you about it. If you are wanting to set up a personal or group bible study again please take the time to visit with us. Have a need or prayer request? Know of somewhere we can help. Please take the time to see us.

This is 5th Sunday preacher exchange I will be going to Sullivan Village while Garrett Bookout from Northwest will be coming here tonight. Lets give Garrett and his family a warm welcome this evening.

We may know that God loves us but how much do we love Him back. Ever think of that before. Is it like any other relationship. Is one stronger? Lets give some real thought to how much we love God. We know he loves us but the one thing God wants is for us to want to love Him back. A true sincere want to. Do we love Him like that. Reminder that scriptures used in todays sermon can be found on the back.
